"Dedicated to those we serve."

Ruth was born on December 29, 1932, to Lawrence and Blanche (nee Bodi) Altice at home on the family farm west of Lac Vert, SK. She attended Roanoke Country School near Lac Vert, which had been named by her father after the town in Virginia he had come from.

After completing her education, Ruth remained on the family farm and aided in caring for her mother and brothers. She loved nature and the outdoors and spent many pleasurable hours gardening, picking berries, and watching the birds. Ruth was especially fond of owls, horses, cats and dogs.

Of great importance to her was attending Jehovah's Witnesses conventions and the regular meetings at Kingdom Hall. The children there were very dear to her and she delighted in treating them with candy.

In 1990, Ruth moved into Naicam and lived in her own "cozy little home". Eventually, she relocated to Churchview Lodge in Naicam. A few years ago, due to failing health, she became a resident of Parkland Place in Melfort. Ruth adjusted very well there and enjoyed her new home.

Ruth had a sincere love for God. This love prompted her to study the Bible. Jehovah God's beautiful promises for our future touched her heart. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on October 27, 1972. Ruth looked forward to the time when God's Kingdom Government (Daniel 2:44; Matthew 6:10) will restore our earth to a paradise, and humans to perfection (Isaiah 35:5,6; Isaiah 65:21,22). Ruth will be lovingly remembered by one sister, Irene Crozon of Humboldt, SK; and by numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, Lawrence and Blanche (nee Bodi) Altice; four brothers: James, George, Roy and Fred; and by four sisters: Iris, Helen, Lila and Vivian.

He Will Call (Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(Chorus)

*He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have alonging
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.*

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.
(Chorus)

In Loving Memory Of
