Edna was born on January 16, 1926 to Harry and Elizabeth (nee Stevens) Warner at home on their farm in the Lanigan district. On September 12, 1945, Edna married Walter Doell at Watson, where they made their home throughout their lives together. Five children, four daughters and one son, were born to them. As well as being a busy homemaker and tending to the needs of her family, Edna assisted Walter with their dray business, which they operated until 1960. She also worked as an assistant cook and in the laundry department at Watson Union Hospital. Eventually, Edna became a Nurses' Aide and was employed in that position until retiring in 1985. It was so fitting for her to receive compassionate care at the Lodge where she passed away after having helped numerous people in her career. The staff at Quill Plains Centennial Lodge provided a level of care Edna deserved, and gave the family peace of mind, knowing she was always cared for with dignity and respect.

Left to mourn are Edna's three children: Lyle (Alice) Doell, Linda (Bill) Thacyk, and Colleen Fletcher; 10 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law: Jean Warner and Pat Warner; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Walter Doell (1997); two daughters: Joanne (1960); Sharon (2000) and husband Thomas Betson (1991); parents, Harry and Elizabeth May Warner; brother Leslie Warner (1982) and his wife Irene Warner (2008); sister Evelyn Brown (2010) and first husband James Byers (1965), and second husband Mac Brown (1976); sister Dorothy Fettes (2006) and her husband Harvey Fettes (2005); brother Mervyn Warner (2010); brother Earl Warner (2015); and son-in-law Donald Fletcher (2015).

BORN:

January 16, 1926
Lanigan District, Saskatchewan

DIED:

November 16, 2015
Watson, Saskatchewan

AGE:

89 Years

God saw you getting tired,

and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and whispered "Come to ME".

with tearful eyes we watched you,

and saw you pass away.

Although we love you dearly,

we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,

hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
