Clara, the youngest daughter of Paul and Gertrude (nee Noeth) Seidel was born on April 29, 1917, at Bruno, SK. She grew up on the family farm and attended Bruno School. In 1931, after graduating from Grade 8 with honors, she stayed home to help on the farm. On October 12, 1938, Clara married Leo Fisher. Nine children, five daughters and four sons, were born to them; however, one son died in infancy. Clara and Leo began their life together in Bruno where they lived for a short time before moving to Flin Flon, MB. Leo enlisted in the Winnipeg Royal Rifles of the Canadian Armed Forces in 1943 and served his country in the Second World War. In 1946, after his discharge from the Army, the Fishers returned to Bruno where they took over the operation of the Seidel family farm. Around 1950, they started Fisher's Dairy Farm with Ayrshire cattle, which they operated until 1973. At that time, Clara and Leo moved to Saskatoon and their son Gerald carried on with the farm. In 1980, the Fishers bought a motor home and enjoyed their retirement traveling with friends and relatives to Alaska, the Maritimes, and a number of states in the U.S.A. As well, they spent many weekends in their motorhome camping and fishing with various family members. Over the years, Clara also enjoyed gardening, horticulture, knitting, quilting, and crocheting. In August 2000, she and Leo moved back to Bruno and resided at Prairieview. Leo passed away in April 2001. Clara continued to reside in Bruno until March 2013 when she relocated to Caleb Village in Humboldt. A final move was made to Lakeview Pioneer Lodge in March 2015, her home until the present.

Clara will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by six children: Carol Hafner, Marvin Fisher, Gwen (Gerald) Kalthoff, Ruth (Cliff) Embury, Allan (Faye) Fisher, and Juaneta (Rick) Bendig; daughter-in-law, Traci Fisher; son-in-law, Delmar Hebig; and by 26 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband, Leo Fisher (2001); two sons: Joseph Fisher (in infancy), and Gerald "Bud" Fisher (2015); one daughter, Gail Hebig (2007); two grandsons: Colin Fisher (1976). and Darcy Fisher (2015); son-in-law, Don Hafner (2009); parents, Paul and Gertrude (nee Noeth) Seidel; four brothers and four sisters; and by all her in-laws.

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine, and one was the Lord's. When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand and, to my surprise, I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life. I asked the Lord about it: "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I need you most." The Lord said: "My precious child; I never left you during your time of trial. Where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you".
