Theresa, the tenth child of Joseph and Cecilia (nee Marth) Schemenauer was born on September 4, 1921, at Marysburg, SK. She attended Marysburg School for Grade 1 and the rest of her schooling was completed at Bright Valley School. Following her education, Theresa worked occasionally for various neighbors. On November 11, 1942, she married Jacob Frank. They made their first home on the Frank family farm for 21 years. It was there where their three children were born. During the first year of their married life, Johnny Sawitsky came from the orphanage to live with them. In 1963, the Franks moved to Chilliwack, BC, where they resided for the next 21 years. For their retirement years, they returned to Humboldt to be closer to family. Among Theresa's many interests were baking buns, quilting, gardening and, most of all, playing cards with family and friends. She was a member of the C.W.L. starting in Marysburg, then in Chilliwack and, finally, in Humboldt. Theresa will be lovingly remembered by her three children, six grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren: Ralph (Joan) Frank and family, Darren (Lisa) Frank and children Megan and Karlee, Neil (Trica) Frank and daughter Delaney, Les (Kyla) Frank and children Jacob and Oliver; Eugene (Loyola) Frank and family, Sean (Kyra) Frank and children Reese, Mia and Hailey, Chris (Nicole) Frank, and Teri (Jason) Schindelka and children Colton, Rowan, Maci and Olivia; and Darlene Frank; special family member, Johnny Sawitsky; two sisters-in-law: Bernadette Schemenauer and Therese Schemenauer; and by numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Jacob Frank; parents, Joseph and Cecilia (nee Marth) Schemenauer; seven sisters and three brothers: Josephine (John) Weber, Cecilia (Alois) Mamer, Dorothy (Herb) Dressler, Florence (Vince) Zoboski, Lottie (John) Frank, Adeline (Walter) Sparks, Marion (Bill) Jenkins, Engelbert Schemenauer (in infancy), Edward Schemenauer, and Arthur Schemenauer.

Hold Her Close Lord!

Hold her close Lord

She had a big heart that never refused to love.

She had a practical mind
that could always find a solution.

She had work-weary hands
that would always reach out to hold a child.

And now, Lord,
as you look into the hearts of each one of us
You will know how much she has touched our lives.

We place her trustingly in Your hands.

Hold her close Lord!

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
