Neil was born on May 4, 1954 in New Waterford, Cape Breton Island where he attended school and graduated. On August 22, 1975, Neil married Martina Campbell and they were blessed with the birth of their only child Elizabeth. In 1975, they moved to Saskatchewan from Snow Lake, MB. He had the opportunity to work at the Potash Corporation of Saskatchewan (PCS) in Lanigan and did so for almost 25 years. Neil loved all aspects of history, archeology, biblical facts, and enjoyed reading and learning new things. He loved to talk to people, always laughing and telling jokes. He also enjoyed spending time at Fishing Lake. Neil was a loving husband, father and grandfather and enjoyed spending time with his grandkids. He was an adopted grandfather to many local kids and always had some gum and money for them.

Neil will be lovingly remembered by his wife Martina (nee Campbell) Gillis and his daughter Elizabeth (Cameron) Ager and their children Joshua and Sapphire. He was predeceased by his father Neil Gillis, his mother Yvonne Fortune, his step-father John Fortune, his half-brother Phillip Ross, and his niece Ashley Ross.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine, and one was the Lord's. When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and, to my surprise, I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life. I asked the Lord about it:
"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I needed you most." The Lord said:
"My precious child, I never left you during your time of trial. Where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you."
