Agnes was born to Arthur Warren and Barbara Poth on their farm in the R.M. of Wolverine. The fourth of ten children she learned to sew, garden, and run a household at an early age. Agnes attended Hillsley School until Grade 9. As a young woman she worked doing housework and childcare for several families. In 1946 she married Alfred Hantke and together they raised ten children. They lived on the Hantke homestead until 1952 when they moved to Carmel so the children could get to school easier. Agnes grew a huge garden, kept chickens, sewed, and cared for her family. She was adept at math and became the family accountant, doing the farm accounts and income tax. Agnes always regretted not having the chance to complete her high school so she did her grade twelve equivalency exams and took a university accounting class at St. Peter's College. For several years she worked as a rural census taker and until she left Carmel she kept the parish financial records. In 1984 Agnes and Alfred moved into a new home in Humboldt. Agnes was a quiet, unassuming individual who never liked being the centre of attention. She was frugal, by necessity at first, and later, out of habit. She did, however, enjoy eating out or ordering Chinese food. She loved games, particularly Kaiser, Bridge, and Scrabble. She was giving and generous except when it came to games. She played to win. Her children and grandchildren had to learn early how to lose. Agnes was a member of the CWL for 50 years, and helped out at the Seniors Centre until her health deteriorated. She was afflicted with Parkinson's disease, and had heart issues. When walking became too difficult, Agnes reluctantly used a walker. In 2013, when she needed more care than her family could provide she moved to St. Mary's Villa where she resided until her death.

Agnes will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her 10 children, 30 grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren: LORAIN (Meryl) Berry of Gibbons, AB, and family, Michael Stashko and son Andrew, Christopher Stashko, and Steven Stashko; EILEEN Germaine of Humboldt and family, Karla Germaine (Jamie Hide) and children Aysha and Cohen, Jeff Germaine (Isabelle) and children Loic and Zack, Ryan Germaine, and Lianne

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow;
I am the sunlight on ripening grain;
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there,
I did not die.*
