Eva was born on August 26, 1921, to William and Mary (nee Bradbury) Collins at North Sydney, Cape Breton, NS, where she was raised and educated. She was the second oldest of five children. Her father was a coal miner. In October 1940, Eva married James Hatcher at St. John's Anglican Church in North Sydney. They were blessed with two children, Jim and Linda. In 1952, the family moved to Lethbridge, AB, where they resided until moving to Moose Jaw in 1955. Three years later, they relocated to Regina. While living there, Eva was very involved with the women's group at the Salvation Army Church. James passed away in 1994. Eva continued to live in Regina until 2001 when she moved to Lanigan. She enjoyed her new surroundings and became a dedicated member of LifePoint Church. Her new church family meant a lot to her, and she will be sorely missed by them. With the help of family and friends, she was able to remain in her home until this past June when she became a resident of Central Parkland Lodge. There her loving personality quickly endeared her to staff and residents alike. Over the years, Eva spent many pleasant hours crocheting doilies. Eva was a very quiet, warm and caring lady who took genuine interest in anyone she came into contact with.

Of utmost importance to her was her faith. A dynamic woman of prayer, she lived for the Lord and the love of Jesus shone through her.

Eva will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her two children and six grandchildren: Jim (Gina) Hatcher of Lanigan and family, Garth, Rick, Chris, Pam and their families; and Linda (Emilio) Lechuga of Mexico City, Mexico, and family, Dianne, Carla and their families; and by numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was predeceased by her husband, James Hatcher (1994); parents, William and Mary (nee Bradbury) Collins; and by all her siblings.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

APPRECIATION
