Loree is survived by her son Devon, her daughter-in-law Chelsea and her granddaughter Brynn as well as her daughter Branden and her partner Chris. She is sadly missed by her mother Donna Brown, and her siblings Scott (Jeanette), Holly (Dwight), Shauna, and Dean (Fei). She will also be greatly missed by the entire Howe family and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her father Jim Brown, her mother-in-law Muriel Howe, and her sister-in-law Carol Brown.

Loree was born to Donna and Jim Brown on March 20, 1956 in Hamiota, Manitoba. Loree was the second of five children.

She spent her childhood in southern Manitoba in several different communities, graduating from high school in Birtle, Manitoba. Loree spent her youth tending to her younger siblings, perfecting her cooking and baking skills, and enjoying all of her sports. In her early 20's she moved to Saskatoon to further her career, where she met her soon to be husband Brad Howe. They married and had 2 children, Devon and Branden. They moved to Colonsay where they spent the majority of their married lives. Loree was always very active in her community, volunteering at every opportunity. She had multiple careers the most notable being the local Avon lady and a school bus driver. They spent countless summers at Crooked Lake surrounded by good friends where she enjoyed the water, the campfire, and spent hours around a card table. Above all this, time with her family was always cherished and her number one priority. Once her children graduated and moved away, Loree and Brad built their dream house at Stoney Lake. Being one of the original settlers at the Humboldt Lake Resort, they quickly developed strong friendships with the other families. These friendships were built on Friday nights, campfires and being on the water. In 2011, Brad and Loree went their separate ways and Loree bought a house in Humboldt and surrounded herself with close friends and was an avid fan of the Humboldt Bronco's. She frequently attended games, billeted players and dyed her hair green to support the team. Loree chose to spend her remaining time in Thompson, Manitoba in the care of her daughter Branden and her partner Chris. Throughout her battle, Loree remained positive, ever courageous and the person that we all knew and loved.

*To all my family and friends who listened to me
when I was angry,
hugged me when I was sad,
and laughed with me
or sometimes at me, whenever they could.
I just want to say thank you
for being there for me and I love you.*

APPRECIATION
