Helen laid down to rest one last time on Thursday, January 22, 2015 just following her 93rd birthday. Helen was born on the family homestead farm to Henry and Theresa (Koffing) Greuel. She attended Kildrum school and later Nursing College in Saskatoon, nursing at Wadena and Hafford until the marriage to the love of her life, Arnold Koob, on October 22, 1951. Helen and Arnold settled on their farm at Kildrum where they were blessed with three daughters. In 1964 the family moved to farm at Meacham and in 1984 Helen and Arnold retired to Bruno. Helen was always good-natured, kind, gentle and never afraid of hard work. She had the gifts of eternal optimism, unending patience and an unconditional love for all, especially her family and grandchildren.

Helen is survived by her daughters Kathleen and Margaret and sons-in-law Cam Bateman, Art Yungwirth and Blair Schulte and grandchildren Steven, Mark, Alan and Hillary. Waiting in heaven with open arms are her cherished husband Arnold, daughter Brenda, parents Henry and Theresa and brother Ben. Helen will be remembered by her siblings Marie Dyer, Edna Weninger, Alice Boehm, Leander (Bernadette) Greuel, Florence Steckler, brothers and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and friends.

In Loving Memory Of

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be,
So He closed His arms around you
And whispered: "Come to Me".
You did not deserve
What you went through
And so He had you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

Helen Koob

APPRECIATION
