Soul of a Man

*I'm going to ask the question
Please answer if you can
Is there anybody's children can tell me
What is the soul of a man?*

(CHORUS)

*Won't somebody tell me
Answer if you can
Won't somebody tell me
Tell me what is the soul of a man?*

*I've travelled different countries
Travelled to the furthest lands
Couldn't find nobody could tell me
What is the soul of a man?*

(Chorus)

*I saw a crowd stand talking
I just came up in time
Was teaching the lawyers and the doctors
That a man ain't nothing but his mind.*

(Chorus)

*I read the Bible often
I try to read it right
As far as I can understand
It's nothing but a burning light.*

(Chorus)

*When Christ taught in the temple
The people all stood amazed
Was teaching the lawyers and the doctors
How to raise a man from the grave.*

just a note

My dad was goofy, loving, kind, but most memories were his jokes and songs. I will miss him singing in the mornings. I remember stories he told me about cowboys in hot chocolate, and holidays with caramellic bars inserted. Most favoured of mine was about Denny Curry. His real name was Bruce, but his little brother couldn't say it so he said "Denny" and the name stuck. And then there was Moo. There is moo. There is an abundance of moo in my home! If you don't know Moo is a small black-and-white shih-tzu mix we got in Birch Hills. He stuck to my dollie blue when he got spliced, missing when he wasn't home. Long Story short, the greatest man to ever walk the earth, Paul Richard Arnold Liimatainen was my dad. And I love him.

We miss you dad,

~ Love, Seira

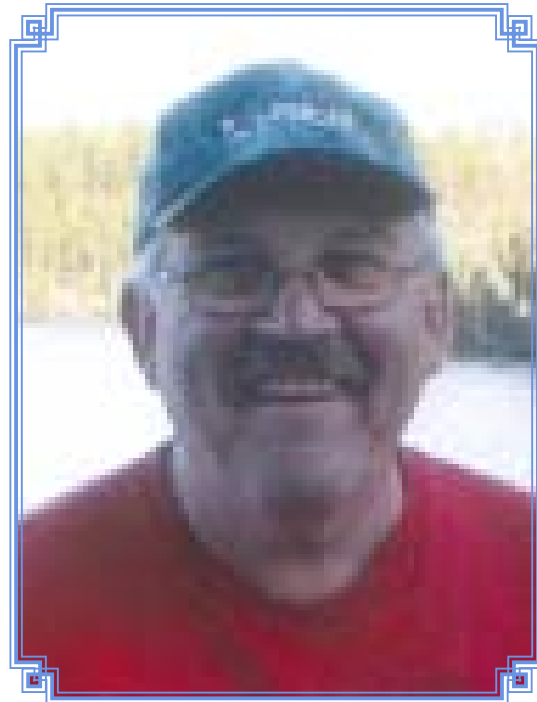

(Ps. the dog will flip when he finds out your gone, I did too.)
