

Glen was born on March 13, 1949, in Humboldt, to Ralph and Frances (nee Ilg) Mueller. He grew up on the family farm in Verndale and went to school at Selmond and Lake Lenore Schools. He quit school in grade 8 because as he tells it, he was too smart for the teacher. Glen was born with a hammer in his hand starting in construction at the "ripe old age of 9" working for his Grandpa Ilg. On June 28, 1969, Glen married Violet Massé at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Lake Lenore. Their first child, Fawn, was born in Humboldt, on December 24, 1969. Glen worked at the BACM in Saskatoon and then he moved the family to Edmonton, AB and then to Partridge Hill, AB. Rolanda, their second child, was born in Edmonton, on December 12, 1970. While they were expecting their third child, the family moved back to Humboldt, where finally they had a son, Marty, who was born on May 28, 1974. The family made the move so that Glen could enter into a partnership with Joe Wirtzfeld which they formed and worked together for many years until he decided to start his own company, Glen's Construction. Glen sold his company to his employees and good friends, Calvin Berger and Gerry Barnes, due to illness; and later on, he began another construction company called Mueller Foundations and Pile Drilling and later Mueller Construction Inc. Glen and Vi retired on April 1, 2004. After many successful years of working side by side with their son, they knew that Marty would carry on the quality workmanship that Mueller Construction Inc. was known for. Marty and his wife, Katherine, took over the business eventually moving it to Revelstoke, BC where its good name carries on. Glen worked as hard as he played. Through the years, Glen's strong work ethic and knowledge led him to be "the Builder" and "the Inventor" that he was to make the hard work he and his men did everyday easier and more efficient. He did not just create, build and invent things in his work but also for his play. The last great invention that he was so proud of was the doors he built for his and Vi's side by side. Glen enjoyed fishing up north, camping and trips to the mountains with his family. He loved hunting, snowmobiling and quadding in the great outdoors. He could often be found visiting with friends and family in his Kokanee Room or tinkering with his latest invention or creation in his shop. Another accomplishment for Glen was his Grandchildren who brought him great Pride and Joy. Ryder, Rayne, Chase, Javyn, Oakley, and Brooke were the light of his life. Glen always had his arms open wide for a big hug whenever he saw any of his grandkids. Ashlee Tebbe, daughter of Dean Perry, had her first baby last summer so Glen was able to meet his first Great Grandbaby, Hayley. Glen went camping with his kids and grandkids in the summers teaching the importance of family, time to be spent with friends and instilling an awe of nature in all of us. He made sure that he took all of his grandkids fishing. He assisted in building two sledding shacks for the avid sledders in the area. Glen and Vi shared the "Moose Shack" in Somme with Jerome and Denise Pratchler which was his second home. If he wasn't in his shop in Humboldt, you could find him at the Moose Shack in Somme. Glen was a corner stone, a source of strength and joy for the many lives that he touched each and every day. He made his wife, kids and grandkids so proud of him. His quick smile, his constant teasing and his unending willingness to lend a hand to others were the character traits that made Glen a magnetic personality to those of us that couldn't help but love him.

Glen will be lovingly remembered by his wife Violet (nee Massé) Mueller; his children: Fawn (Dean) Perry of Martensville, SK and children Rayne, Javyn and Ashlee Tebbe (Keenan) (Glen's step-granddaughter of Calgary) and Hayley (Glen's step-great-granddaughter); Rolanda (Vince) McAvoy of Saskatoon, SK and children Chase and Brooke; Marty (Katherine) Mueller of Revelstoke, BC and children Ryder and Oakley; his mother Frances (nee Ilg) Mueller of Humboldt, SK; his siblings, Lorna Albers of Humboldt, Terry Mueller of Humboldt and Lisa (Wayne) Schroeder of Montreal, QC; in-laws of the Massé Family: Bernadette Stewart of Wiseton, Della Bollefer of Humboldt, Raymond Massé of Edmonton, Darlene (Ivan) Lung of Humboldt, Denise (Joe) Kriston of Meskanaw, Angie Wehage of Saskatoon; and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and by a host of friends. He was predeceased by his father Ralph Mueller (February 20, 2005); sister Diane Mueller (March 2, 2007); and in-laws of the Massé family: Henri and Bertha (nee Danielson) Massé; John Stewart, Elmer Bollefer and Don Wehage.

Glen Mueller

BORN:

March 13, 1949
Humboldt, Saskatchewan

PASSED AWAY:

January 24, 2015
Humboldt, Saskatchewan

AGE:
65 Years

Just because you cannot see me does not mean I am not there
Just because I am in heaven
Does not mean I do not care

I often see you crying
You often say my name
I want to hold you tight
I want to ease your pain

Its easy for me for I know heaven real
If you knew the truth
How much better would you feel

One day we will meet again
But only when the time is right
When you step out of the darkness
I will be standing in the light

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
