Trevor, the youngest in a family of four, was born to Jerome and Lucille (nee Weiman) Strasser on October 24, 1984, at St. Paul's Hospital, Saskatoon. He grew up at Bruno and attained his elementary and secondary education at Bruno School. During those years, Trevor enjoyed playing hockey, ball, golf and broomball. Upon completion of Grade 12, he relocated to Saskatoon and attended the University of Saskatchewan, attaining a Bachelor's Degree in Commerce with a major in Marketing. At the time of his passing, Trevor was pursuing additional classes with the goal of entering the College of Law. He liked nothing better than a spirited debate; he would have his information down cold, could argue tirelessly, and when he bested you he'd always share a happy smile and be on to the next topic. Trevor very much enjoyed working with his Dad on many projects at Bruno Feeds. He was a loving son, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend.

Love Never Disappears

Love never disappears for death is a non-event.

I have merely retired to the room next door.

You and I are the same; what we were for each other, we still are.

Speak to me as you always have, do not use a different tone, do not be sad.

Continue to laugh at what made us laugh.

Smile and think of me.

Life means what it has always meant.

The link is not severed.

Why should I be out of your soul if I am out of your sight?

I will wait for you; I am not here, but just on the other side of this path.

You see, all is well.

(St. Augustine)

Trevor will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his parents, Jerome and Lucille (nee Weiman) Strasser; two brothers and one sister: Terry Strasser, Trent Strasser, and Tanya (Randy) Ewanishin; two nieces and one nephew: Miranda Ewanishin, Alyssa Ewanishin, and Bradon Ewanishin; maternal grandmother, Alvina (nee Kohle) Weiman; and by many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He was predeceased by his maternal grandfather, John Weiman; paternal grandparents, Joe and Mildred (nee Honish) Strasser; cousin, Dawn Thoms; aunt, Marlene Lamping; and uncle, Francis Huslage.

Farewell My Friends

It was beautiful as long as it lasted
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever
Save the pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts who love and care ...
and the strings pulling at the heart and soul ...
The strong arms that held me up
When my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life
I came across good friends,
Friends who stood by me,
Even when the time raced me by.
Farewell, farewell, my friends
I smile and bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears for I need them not
All I need is your smile.
If you feel sad do think of me
For that's what I'd like when you live in the hearts
Of those you love, remember them ---
You never die.

(Gitanjali Gfci, inspirational poet)
