Frances was born to Frank and Pauline (nee Sand) Ledene on January 18, 1934, at Amazon, SK. She was the oldest in a family of three children and grew up near Cadillac, as well as in Humboldt and area. As a young woman, Frances was employed at various farms as a housekeeper. On November 11, 1958, she married Raymond Streitenberger at Bruno. They resided in Bruno where they raised two daughters, Karen and Colleen. The Streitenberger family lived at the Bruno Clayworks for a few years before settling back in town. Throughout her life, Frances worked at Pulvermacher's Grocery Store, St. Ursuline Academy, and the Co-op. She loved spending summers at Wakaw Lake and usually had a trailer full of grandkids. Many other fun-filled hours were spent playing cards, Yahtzee, and roasting marshmallows on the campfires Frances would build. As the grandchildren grew up, the marshmallows would be replaced with drinks, endless stories, and laughter. Frances was an avid gardener and loved flowers. She even made sure she put in her garden this year. Frances really enjoyed travelling on the bus with her friends to various casinos and the yearly family trip to the casino for her birthday. As well, she could often be found going to play Bingo or uptown to buy her weekly lottery tickets. Those who knew Frances will forever miss her wonderful, crazy sense of humor and her infectious laugh. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family, but always be held in their hearts.

*Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
Amen*

Frances leaves to mourn her loss and celebrate her life, her two children: Karen Ledene, and Colleen (Wes) Niebrugge; six grandchildren: Jason, Rylan (Ryan), Kaitlyn (Chris), Mandy (Neil) Ganton, Kristin (Brad) Pelletier, and Randi (Adam) Parker; seven great-grandsons; and numerous other relatives and friends. She was predeceased by her husband, Raymond Streitenberger (1995); an infant son; parents, Frank and Pauline (nee Sand) Ledene; two brothers: Stanley (Tinker) Ledene, and Kenneth (Pat) Ledene; and by three brothers-in-law: Sylvester Streitenberger, Richard Ulrich, and Don Wagner.

One At Rest - Author Unknown

*Think of me as one at rest, for me you should not weep;
I have no pain no troubled thoughts for I am just asleep.
The living thinking me that was, is now forever still,
And life goes on without me now, as time forever will.
If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away,
Dwell not long upon it friend for none of us can stay.
Those of you who liked me, I sincerely thank you all,
And those of you who loved me, I thank you most of all.
And in my fleeting lifespan, as time went rushing by,
I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to love, to cry.
Matters it now if time began, if time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all, and now I am at peace.*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
