Belinda was born to Marcus and Elizabeth (Froess) Struck. She was raised and educated in Humboldt, but would move often in her adult life with Steve Boudreau and their two children, Tanya and Chad. She eventually settled in Cape Breton, a place she grew to love as much as Saskatchewan. In Cape Breton, she worked at Tim Horton's for more than 30 years. She was an enthusiastic supporter of the Tim Horton's Children's Foundation. From 1998 to 2014, her store won a regional award 10 times for having raised the most money on Tim Horton's Camp Day. She was very proud of that achievement. She was an excellent cook best known for her bread, a recipe and technique she learned from her mother. Belinda was a talented seamstress, an avid reader, and loved to garden. She was also an impressive athlete: Running, cross-country skiing, baseball, volleyball, and bowling. She won trophies and honours in each. Her exercise routine included 500 sit-ups a day and weight training. Even after her diagnosis with cancer, she remained active, going on neighbourhood and coastal walks. She never wanted to slow down. Belinda's life was filled with even more love when she met Jason Wells almost 11 years ago. Jason calls her his soul-mate, a sentiment she likely shared. She loved him and his four sons dearly. They filled her days with love and happiness.

Belinda is lovingly remembered by her two children Tanya Boudreau and Chad (Shelley) Boudreau; her love Jason Wells and their boys Jonathan, Josh, Quintin and Jason; siblings Bonnita (Charlie) Bennett, David (Judy) Struck, Bernadette (Gordon) Corman, Carol (Lorne) Struck, Audrey Struck, Bettyann (Andrew) Gerwing, and Yvette Struck; grandsons Breton and Lochlan Boudreau; former husband Steve Boudreau; many other family and friends; and coworkers and customers of Tim Horton's in Sydney, Nova Scotia. She was predeceased by her mother Elizabeth (Froess) Struck and father Marcus Struck.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the family, we wish to express our gratitude to the nurses and doctors of the Regina General Hospital who took such great care of Belinda.
