Frances was born on the family farm in the Borsczow District near Prud'homme, SK and attended Lamartine School. After her schooling, she continued to help on the farm and with her younger siblings. On October 31, 1953, Frances married Matthew Tarnowski and they resided at Keller School near Fulda where Matt was a teacher and then at Prud'homme for one year until they moved into Bruno where she lived until the present. Frances spent many happy hours creating everything from nun's habits to wedding gowns and men's suits. Sewing was her passion, along with knitting, crocheting, gardening and playing cards. She loved to fish and camp and spent many hours visiting with family and friends. In 1972, Matt bought Bruno Lumber Supply, and in 1985, after Matt's death, she took over managing the yard right up to the present. Frances was a loving mother and grandmother was dedicated and supportive in her children's and grandchildren's lives. She was active with the C.W.L.

Frances survived by her children, Dianne (Gary) Olchowski; Donna (Dan) Olchowski and their children, Colin (Michelle) and two sons, Drew and Owen, Adam and Ward; siblings, Maurice (Theresa) Sielski, Ray (Pauline) Sielski, Peter (Gail) Sielski, Walter (Irene) Sielski, John (Pat) Sielski, and Mary (Sielski) Bradburn; sister-in-law, Anne Sielski, brother-in-law, Adolph (Mary) Tarnowski and sister-in-law, Phyllis Blocka. She was predeceased by her husband, Matt Tarnowski (1985); parents, Nick and Petrunella (nee Starosta) Sielski; in-laws, Nick Tarnowski and Anne (nee Chomoway) Tarnowski; step-father, Steve Pokoyoway; brother, Ben; and two brothers-in-law, Ed Blocka and Roy Bradburn.
