Lloyd was born on August 10, 1954 to Arnie and Delphine (nee Herman) at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Humboldt. He grew up on the family farm just outside of Bruno where he attended school and his love for sports started. In his early years, Lloyd enjoyed playing sports such as broomball, football and baseball. Pitching was his favorite position. When he could no longer pitch, he continued his love of baseball through coaching and later, umpiring. After moving to Humboldt, Lloyd learned martial arts earning black belts. He successfully competed and later taught martial arts throughout the local surrounding areas. Lloyd supported the community in numerous ways such as serving as president of the Humboldt Broncos. He was also an ambassador for Humboldt through his leadership roles with the Saskatchewan Association of Licence Inspectors and Bylaw Officials and the Saskatchewan Building Officials Association. In his younger years, Lloyd was a successful salesman earning awards with Chrysler Canada and Labatt's. He received the Master Member of the Chrysler Salesmen's Guild award that recognized him as one of the top 50 salesmen across Canada and earned him a trip to Bermuda. Lloyd was honoured to have worked as the Bylaw Enforcement Officer for the City of Humboldt for 30 years. He took great pride in knowing that he was contributing to the well-being of the community; Lloyd sincerely took his job to heart and was very passionate about it. Respect, integrity, honesty, common sense, and fair play were important to him. He was a humble man in many ways that most did not see. Lloyd enjoyed coffee with the guys, working out at the gym (a.k.a. socializing), fishing at the cabin, and playing Kaiser. He was a great storyteller, loved teasing people, and had a great sense of humour. Lloyd was very proud of his children and all of their accomplishments. He will always be known for his love of family, friends and community.

Lloyd will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 28 years, Helen (nee Pozniak) Weyland; their three children: Jay Weyland, Maria Weyland, and Cody Weyland; his mother, Delphine (nee Herman) Weyland; and by many relatives of the Weyland, Herman and Pozniak families. He was predeceased by his father, Arnold Weyland.

I have slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you,
Whatever we were to each other
That we still are.
Call me by my own familiar name.
Speak of me in the easy way we always used.
Put no difference in your tone;
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Pray, think of me, smile.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
