Phyllis Lorraine Pocock was born in the Burr District to Sidney and Rose Pocock on April 24, 1920 and passed away on March 7, 2015 in Humboldt. After the death of her father when she was 8, Phyllis grew up on the family farm with her mother, her sisters Ivy, Molly and Dorothy and little brother Ernest. After finishing school Phyllis traveled to the 'big city' of Moose Jaw and spent some time building Cessna aircraft as a part of the war effort. Upon returning to the district Phyllis married George Wignes in 1945 and they started to farm and raise their family. Phyllis and George moved into their Centennial Crescent house in Humboldt in 1990. Following George's passing in 1992, Phyllis moved into a suite of her own until 2012 when she moved into Caleb Village where she was living at her time of passing. Through all these years Phyllis was always busy. While on the farm, and even after moving to town, she kept a large garden and big beds of flowers. She was also very talented with crafts and created many pictures, cards and afghans to name a few. She doted on her ever-expanding family and was never so happy as when she was surrounded by her kids, grand-kids and great-grand-kids.

Phyllis is survived by daughter Sheila (Tom) Paton; sons-in-law Edwin Engle and Lin Cochrane; grandchildren Matt Paton, Emma Paton, Leslie (Craig) Huxted, Jennifer (Terry) Oyakawa, Kristy (Chris) Engele, Nancy (Dirk) van Egmond, Kathy (Kevin) Stolson and Erin Cochrane; great-grandchildren Dillon, Tyler, Casandra, Katrina, Nathan, Jordan, Ethan, Abby, Luke, Kaitlyn, Mason, Taylor, Kendra, Keagan, Nate and Jack; great-great-granddaughter Aurora; and many, many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews and great-great-nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by parents Sidney and Rose (Partridge) Pocock; husband George Wignes; sisters Ethel, Ivy (Ron) Grisdale, Molly (Chuck) Fenn, Dorothy (Jim) Dale, brother Ernest Pocock; daughters Judy Engele and Lorraine Cochrane; and great-grandson David Huxted.

*When I am gone, release me, let me go...
I have so many things to see and do,
You musn't tie yourself to me with tears;
Be happy that we had these precious years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on;
So if you need me, call and I will come,
Though you can't see me or touch me, you'll bear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home"*
