Robert was born on Friday April 16, 1943, to Robert and Leona (nee Behiel) Altermatt at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Humboldt. He grew up on the farm at Englefeld and took his schooling, grades one to 12 in Englefeld. He was the only child so was spoiled by his parents, and his grandparents Walter and Rosa Jacob. Robert married Rosalee Grey on June 25, 1966, and they just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. In his early years, Robert worked at Haussecker Slaughter House, and later Schulte Industries in the winter months. Robert loved farming and was a farmer all his life; he still had his father's Case tractor in running and working condition on the farm. It was the only Case there as Robert was a John Deere man, and had a long line of green equipment. As well as having pigs and cows, he built the farm up from five quarters of land to 21 quarters of land. Robert loved to travel and enjoyed having a good time with all his friends. He also loved music and dancing and went to Craven faithfully for many years.

Robert will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 50 years Rosalee (nee Grey) Altermatt and their family: Linda Altermatt (Ken Friesen) and her children Brianna (Chad) Hammond and their son Baron, and Braden Acker (Nora Dreschler); Karl (Donna) Altermatt and their family Whitney Altermatt (Bryce Athmer) Keith (Alissa) Altermatt and their family Ella and Lea, Bradley Altermatt (Kittrina Talbot) and Tyler Altermatt; Darcy (Donna) Altermatt and their children Dalan and Danae; his sisters-in-law: Patty (Sam) Posnikoff, Bev Schloendorf and Barb Hurley; and brothers-in-law: Tracy (Diane) Schloendorf and Fred (Randi) Grey. Robert was predeceased by his parents Robert and Leona (nee Behiel) Altermatt; mother-in-law Irene Wolff; paternal grandparents Walter and Rosa Jacob; and maternal grandparents Frederick and Valerie Behiel.
