George Peter Baron was born on the Baron family homestead outside of the village of St. Benedict on March 30 in 1920. He was the third youngest of fourteen children. On June 1, 1953 he married the love of his life, Frances Kamphaus.

George was an integral member of the St. Benedict community. He enjoyed the sport of curling and won many a game within the bonspiel. He was gifted with great skills in the various trades. He was asked to set the first rafters in place for the skating rink in St. Benedict. During the construction of St.

Andrew's Church (St. Benedict Roman Catholic Parish) he was set in charge of mixing the mortar for the team of bricklayers. For nearly a decade, he was employed by Andy Varga as a seasonal mechanic. Combine repairs were his specialty. He worked concurrently as a welder and fabricator for Dave Varga and built cultivators, designed a custom-made jig with hydraulics to mass-produce stone forks; and with his mastery of masonry he was in charge of hand-casting cement blocks. He also farmed full-time and kept animals and poultry. Over several years, he mowed the road allowance for the RM of Three Lakes. In the early 1980's he worked as a grain handler for Joe Bernard at the Sask Wheat Pool elevator in St. Benedict. His last employment prior to retirement was as foremen to manage, maintain and groom the waterfront and campsites of Lucien Lake (Todd Schuler was one of his crew). He also built, with the aid of his staff, several Purple Martin houses for the lake grounds, which still stand today.

He continued farming until 1993. Though he rented out his land, he continued to participate through trucking, running for parts and attending to machinery repair. It was only in the last year of his life that he retired completely but he continued to live on the family farm with his beloved wife.

George will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 63 years

Frances (nee Kamphaus) Baron and their children: Barb (Reg) Wedewer and family, Carrie Thoms (Darren Engele) and her children: Breanna and Terran Thoms, Russell Baron (Laurence Ewashko). George was predeceased by his grandson-in-law Gerard Thoms; his parents, Martin and Elizabeth (nee Labodi)

Baron; and his siblings: Mary (Joe) Molnar, Elizabeth (Joe) Rendek, Julia

(Bill) Rash, Steve (Magdalene) Baron, Martin Baron, Ann (John) Paydli, Joe

(Hilda) Baron, John (Margaret) Baron, Mike Baron, Kay (Jeff)

MacIntyre and Tony Baron and twin siblings in infancy.

In Loving Memory Of

I've sown many a bushel of wheat, welcomed many a morning Sun, I've breathed in the dust and tasted the wind, and I've gotten many a good job done.

I've climbed off the tractor with dirt on my face, and pain in my weary bones, but somehow I always can muster a smile when I see the lights of my home.

Where my family waits, and the love of my life sets a table that's fit for a king.
With her smile and a hug, and a full coffee mug I know I have everything.

As I trudge once more through the field of my years, and separate the chaff from the grain, I thank the Good Lord, I can say in my heart, that I'd do it all over again.
