Edith was born on August 25, 1923 on the farm 10 miles west of LeRoy Saskatchewan, to Fred and Anne (Brunn) Harcourt. She attended grades 1 – 10 at Caseyville School, grade 11 was by correspondence and for grade 12 she boarded in Sinnett in order to attend Loyola Continuation School. She subsequently attended Normal School in Saskatoon and began her teaching career on April 1, 1943 at Stearns School in the Fulda area. There she met her soul mate Theodore Flory and they were married in 1946. Edith continued to teach at Sleaford School (near Colonsay), St. Mathew School (near Fulda) and Fulda School. Ted and Edith and their 5 children lived 5 miles west of Fulda until 1965 when they moved into Humboldt. Edith also worked at the Humboldt Library, and then taught at Marysburg School and St. Augustine's School in Humboldt. She worked hard to receive her Bachelor of Education in 1980, at 56 years of age, and in later years taught Office Education at St Peter's College.

Edith was at her best when surrounded by children. She was a beloved teacher and kindergarten was her passion. She demonstrated her commitment to teaching and learning everyday throughout her life. This was further demonstrated by initiating the kindergarten program at St. Augustine School as well as early childhood education programs within the community. Edith was very active in her community, volunteering on Parish Council, the VON and Volkssport (walking club), to name a few. She was a founding member of the Friends of the Humboldt Museum, and worked tirelessly on fundraising and frequently acted as a tour guide, again living her passion for education. She was also a voracious walker, regularly doing 10 km a day even in her '80's. She even walked 16km across the Confederation Bridge connecting PEI to New Brunswick when it opened in 1997! In addition to dancing and square dancing, in their years together Edith and Ted also enjoyed traveling and saw much of Canada and the United States. Edith also travelled to many points in the US, Europe and Australia. For Edith travelling was learning. Sincere thanks to Gardiner Point Care Home in Regina for the excellent care Edith received for the past 3.5 years.

Edith watched with pride as her family grew to 16 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. She is lovingly remembered by: daughter-in-law Norma Flory and family, Joel (Tracy) Flory, Chris (Erin) Flory, Scott (Tasha) Flory, and Trevor (Nicole) Flory; daughter Eleanor Britz and family, Jennifer (Alex) Gill, James (Jenn) Britz, Nadine (Doug Shields) Britz, and Ryan (Jenny) Britz; daughter Elaine (Harold) Mosley and family, Catherine (Bill Berscht) Code, Robert (Joleen) Mosley, Christine (Doug) Westbrook, and Mark Mosley; son Bruce (Sandy) Flory and family, Theo Flory and Wyatt Flory; and daughter Gail (Allen) Lefebvre and their son Adam Lefebvre. Edith is also survived by her sister Betty (Andrew) Bertling; sisters-in-law Pauline Harcourt, Bea Harcourt, Eileen Jaeb and Rosemarie Lins; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, Fred and Anne (Brunn) Harcourt, infant son Richard, husband Ted (1981), son Philip Flory, grandson Stuart Lefebvre, and son-in-law John Britz. Edith was also predeceased by her siblings: Dick Harcourt, Tom (Nellie) Harcourt, Bill (Kelly) Harcourt, Jack Harcourt, and Margaret (Al) Beitel; and also Ted's parents Joseph and Emma (Loessl) Flory; and Ted's siblings: Norbert (Julia) Flory, Martha (John) Lins, Dorothy (Richard) Graf, Caroline (John) Winkel, Theresa Flory and brothers-in-law Raymond Jaeb and Herman Lins.

All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten

Share everything.
Play fair.
Don't hit people.
Put things back where you found them.
Clean up your own mess.
Don't take things that aren't yours.
Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.
Wash your hands before you eat.
Flush.
Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you.
Live a balanced life -
Learn some and think some
And draw and paint and sing and dance
And play and work everyday some.
Take a nap every afternoon.
When you go out into the world,
Watch out for traffic,
Hold hands and stick together.
