

*"I am nothing special of this I am sure.
There are no great monuments dedicated to me,
and my name will soon be forgotten!*

BUT

*I have loved another with all my Heart and Soul
and for me, that has always been enough!"*

Rose will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by two sisters-in-laws: Doreen Munro and Elizabeth Daschner, both of Humboldt; and by numerous nieces, nephews, and relatives of the Daschner and Kalthoff families. She was predeceased by her husband, Leo Kalthoff (July 11, 1996); parents, Jacob and Rose Mary (nee Krienert) Daschner; one sister, Ida (Ronnie) Bells; four brothers: Leo Daschner, John (Carollynn) Daschner, James Daschner, and Hugo Daschner; and by two nieces: Kim Daschner and Linda Daschner.

Rose was born on June 27, 1931, to Jacob and Rose Mary (nee Krienert) Daschner at home on the family farm in the Fulda district. A few years later, the family moved to a farm in the Wolverine District.

Eventually, Rose attended Manor Park School which was across the road from the Daschner farm. After completing Grade 12, she worked on the farm, and later for Emil Gasser at his drug store in Humboldt. On June 18, 1957, Rose married Leo Kalthoff at St. Augustine R.C. Church in town. Together, they lived and worked side-by-side on their Dixon area farm west of Humboldt.

In 1977, Rose and Leo moved into Humboldt. They rented out the farm but maintained an active interest in it. Leo passed away on July 11, 1996. Rose continued to reside in their home, and still enjoyed going back to the farm to maintain the yard.
