

The Rose Beyond the Wall

*A rose once grew where all could see,
Sheltered beside a garden wall,
And as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall..*

*One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide.
The rose bent gently towards it warmth
then passed beyond to the other side*

*Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted - the rose blooms there-
its beauty even greater now,
nurtured by God's own loving care.*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

SCHULER-LEFEBVRE FUNERAL CHAPEL
"Dedicated to those we serve."

In Loving Memory

Shirley Kozar

September 28, 1938- October 29, 2016

78 years

CELEBRATION OF LIFE:

Wednesday, November 2, 2016 - 2:00 p.m.
Schuler-Lefebvre Funeral Chapel
Humboldt, Saskatchewan

Officiant:

Rev. Brenda Curtis

Organist:

Marie Aubin

Scripture Readers:

Stephanie Schmidt &
Rev. Al Hingley

Memorial Tribute:

Shirley's Granddaughters:
Hollie Binsfeld, Elizabeth Meszaros
& Megan Shortland

Urnbearer:

Corey Kozar

Honorary Pallbearers:

All those who shared in Shirley's life

Memorial Donation:

Clair Cemetery Fund

INTERMENT:

Clair Cemetery,
Clair Distict, Saskatchewan

MEMORIAL LUNCHEON:

Clair Community Hall
Clair District, Saskatchewan

Shirley was born on September 28, 1938 to Palmer and Mary (nee McGillivray) Vigoren in Wadena, SK. She was raised on the family farm in the Clair district where she attended Park Villa School until Grade 9. On July 18, 1958, Shirley married Martin Kozar of Scrip, SK. After their first winter of marriage being spent in Surrey, BC, Shirley and Martin moved back to farm at Scrip. It was here that they were blessed with the birth of their children: Dale in 1959, Terry in 1960, Wendy in 1961, and Elaine in 1967. Shirley kept herself busy over the years helping on the farm and tending to her gardens and flowerbeds. She also enjoyed baking, cooking and canning, and passed along many techniques and recipes to her children and grandchildren. Shirley was known for her crocheting, knitting, cross stitch and embroidery skills, and attended numerous craft shows to sell her hand-made items. For over 25 years, Shirley and Martin farmed and raised their family in the Scrip District. In 1985, they made the move into Humboldt, and in 1998 to Wolverine Heights in Muenster. It was there that Shirley kept busy with babysitting. Finally in 2012, due to failing health, Shirley and Martin moved to Saskatoon where, sadly, two months later, Martin died after a short and courageous battle with cancer. The next few years saw Shirley make a few more moves within Saskatoon to deal with her growing health concerns, with a final move being made back to Humboldt to be closer to family. Shirley will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her four children: son Dale (Kathy) Kozar and their children, Hollie (Kent) Binsfeld and their daughters Kayla and Alexa, and Corey (Amanda) Kozar and children Jadah and Cain; son Terry Kozar and his step-children, Jason (Helen) Molle and their children Reagan and Ashlyn, Becky (Brad) Frim and their children Reanna, Riley and Jackson, Cody (Tasha) Weippert and their daughter Kaylee, and Chelsea Weippert; daughter Wendy Kozar; and daughter Elaine (Steve) Shortland and their children, Elizabeth (Deryk) Meszaros and their son Lucas, Mathew Shortland (Jami Lyn) and their children Drydehn and Sadie, and Megan Shortland (Matthew); two brothers: Garnet (Margaret) Vigoren and Robert (Estelle) Vigoren; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws of the Kozar family. She was predeceased by her husband Martin Kozar; and her parents Palmer and Mary (nee McGillivray) Vigoren.