Helen was born on Wednesday, November 7, 1923, to John and Mary (nee Lenyk) Huculak at home on the family farm in the Wolverine District. She attended Duffel School and completed Grade 8. Helen worked at the grocery store in Viscount, and after Joseph's return from the war they were married on April 27, 1946.

They farmed in the Wolverine District until 1967. At that time, they moved into Humboldt, where Helen worked at various jobs. She loved crocheting, quilting, cooking, baking, gardening, and her flowers. Her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren and she enjoyed babysitting all of them. Helen's faith was very important to her; she was a very strong believer and devoted to her church.

Joe died in 1983. In 2007, Helen moved into an apartment and in 2013, Caleb Village became her home. Due to failing health, in 2015, she moved in with her daughter Grace.

Helen was the last surviving member of her generation.

Helen will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her five children, five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren: Joseph (Ellen) Leonew and family, Jason Leonew and James (Tammy) Leonew and their children Ashlyn

and Rylan; Mavis (Jerome) Teiber; daughter, Gerry (Ron)

Fredericks; Darcy (Shirley) Leonew and family Jenn (Nathan)

Doratti and their daughter Ava, Carla (Trevor) Stevenson, Chelsea

Leonew (Peter Weber); and Grace Grobb; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and their families. She was predeceased by her husband, Joseph Leonew; parents, John and Mary (nee Lenyk) Huculak; and five sisters and two brothers: Pauline (Steve) Bryck; Annie (Andrew) Senko; Margaret (Mike) Senko; Julia (Joe) Mellnick; Cora (Martin) Paproski; Peter (Lily) Huculak; and Nick (Nettie) Huculak.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
