Allan was born on Tuesday, March 31, 1931, to William and Mayme (nee Ehlert) McLean at Weyburn, SK. In 1934, the family moved to Wimmer, SK, and two years later to the Watson district. Another move was made to Barrie, ON, in 1941, but they returned to Watson to farm. Allan attended Iron Spring School. Following his education, he worked on his father's farm and at various other jobs before purchasing his own land. As well, Allan was employed by the Dept. of Highways in Watson until being transferred to Lanigan. He married Lena Halayko in 1971 and became a step-father to her two children, Bonnie and Rick. Allan retired in 1992. Allan will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by step-daughter Bonnie Jackson and her children, Tyler Jackson and Nathan Jackson; step-son Ricky Tarasoff and his daughter Amy; two brothers: Elgin (Violet) McLean, and Ronald McLean; sister-in-law, Anne McLean; and by many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his wife, Lena (nee Halayko) McLean (February 27, 2016); parents, William and Mayme (nee Ehlert) McLean; brother, Gordon McLean; and by sister-in-law, Viola McLean.

I Go Fishing

When I want to get away
From the rumble and the swishing
I get my rod and a couple of frogs
And I go fishing.

When I want to heal my soul
From the barbs that life is dishfing
I go and find the river's fork,
'Then I go fishing.

When I want some peace and quiet
For meditating and contemplation
I find a spot behind the bend
And I go fishing.

When I want some crisp fresh air
That makes everyone start a-wishin'
I take my boots and tattered hat
And I go fishin'.

If you would find life's greatest thrill
While cares of day are vanishing
Why don't you buy a rod and reel
And just start fishing.

I'm Gone Fishing
