Marilyn was born in LeRoy, SK on October 17, 1960 to Herb and Irene (nee Berthold) Wickenhauser. She attended school in Watson, SK, and St. Ursula Academy in Bruno, SK, where she graduated in 1979. She received her Bachelor of Music (Vocal Performance) and Bachelor of Education degrees from the University of Saskatchewan. Marilyn married Ken Morrison in 1982, and after several moves, they settled in Yellowknife, NT. Marilyn taught music and other subjects at many of the schools in Yellowknife, with the last 15 years at Range Lake North School. Marilyn had a deep love of music which she shared through the many extra-curricular activities she did for the school; such as choir and band performances, her involvement in St. Patrick's Parish as choir director and singer, as well as her participation in many drama and music productions in Yellowknife. Marilyn had a vibrant personality, infectious laugh and a creative spirit. In recent years, one of the joys of Marilyn's life was her grandchildren. Her family and friends were always very important to her. Those that knew her will always remember her deep, steadfast faith, humorous and spontaneous character, and generous and loving heart. Marilyn is lovingly remembered by her three children: Aaron Morrison; Amanda Morrison (Robert Purcka) and their children Hayden Purcka and Greysen Purcka; Briana Morrison; her loving boyfriend Greg Smith; siblings Melanie (Jim) Ramsay, Lana (Doug) Ramsay, Luke (Kate) Wickenhauser, and Nadine (Tim) Keller; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Marilyn was pre-deceased by her parents Herb and Irene (nee Berthold) Wickenhauser.

*"Meet me in St. Louis, Louis,
Meet me at the fair,
Don't tell me the lights are shining
Any place but there;
We will dance the Hoochee Koochee,
I will be your tootsie wootsie,
If you will meet in St. Louis, Louis,
Meet me at the fair."*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance at the funeral service.
