Adeline will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her son, Larry (Donna) Nagy and family, Brent (Chantel) Nagy and their children Owen and Stella, Craig Nagy (Nicole Moser), and Neil (Terrai) Nagy and their son Caius; and daughter-in-law, Brenda Nagy and her family, Angie (Ryan) Peake and children Axle and Gaege, Ashley Nagy (Lance Knutson) and daughter Sway; and by one brother Carl (Liz) Grundmann. She was predeceased by her husband Otto Nagy; son Danny Nagy; parents, Carl and Herta Grundmann; and siblings: Otto (Gertie) Grundmann, Dora (Walter) Heidecker, Irene Doelzsar, and Elsie (Bill) McDavid.

Adeline was born on December 15, 1935, to Carl and Herta (nee Rucks) Grundmann at Humboldt, SK. She grew up in the Middle Lake area and attended Lake Ignace School, where she started at the age of five years because her brother had started school and she wouldn't stay home. Adeline married John Nagy and they farmed in the St. Brieux area where they raised their two sons, Larry and Danny. After her divorce she moved to Saskatoon and worked at Royal University Hospital. She met Otto Nagy and then moved to Yellow Creek to run their business, the Yellow Creek Hotel, Bar, and Coffee Shop. On October 10, 1988, Adeline and Otto were married and they moved to their farm near Gronlid, SK. In the spring of 2012, she moved to Humboldt after Otto had passed away. Adeline loved nature, animals, birds, gardening, playing cards, and word searches. Her greatest prize possession was her little red car. Embroidered quilting was one of her many talents and she made many of these cherished quilts for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. For Christmas gifts her children and grandchildren would always receive her perogies, cabbage rolls, pies, and canning. She was a very modest person who made friends easily wherever she lived and her family was her greatest joy.

Amazing Grace

How sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.
Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed
Thro' many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.
When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
