Polly was born to Alex and Irene (nee Knihinisky) Kudryk on Tuesday, October 9, 1928, at home on the family farm in the Peterson district, where she grew up. In May 1947, she married Dmytro Perdinka and they also made their home in the Peterson district. Polly was a homemaker, and also assisted with the farming operation. She loved gardening, especially her flower beds, and cooking and baking were also one of her great passions. As well, Polly enjoyed socializing with friends and relatives. "On behalf of the family, we wish to thank all the dedicated staff at Lakeview Pioneer Lodge who loved Polly and took exceptional care of her." Polly will be lovingly remembered by her son, Richard Perdinka; son-in-law, Marvin McNabb; granddaughter Dawn (Trevor) Button; great-granddaughter Samantha Button; sister Mary Jones; sister-in-law Tina Kudryk; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Dmytro Perdinka; daughter Mary Anne McNabb; parents Alex and Irene (nee Knihiniski) Kudryk; four sisters and three brothers: Nettie Kudryk, Victoria (Onofry) Hyshka, Dora (John) Globak, Ann (Ken) Pascoe, Steve (Helen) Kudryk, John (Wilma) Kudryk, and Peter Kudryk.

GOD'S GARDEN
*God looked around His garden
And found an empty space;
He then looked down
upon this earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering;
He knew you were in pain;
He knew that you might never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road
was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you never went alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

APPRECIATION
