Lillian was born on September 13, 1927, to John and Mary (nee Braun) Sarauer in Humboldt. She grew up on the farm and, after completing her education at Schuler School, helped out at home. On June 28, 1949, Lillian married Alvin Ramler. They farmed at Romance for two years, and then purchased land near Annaheim, where they continued farming and raised a family of six children on a farm two miles south of Annaheim. In 1990, they moved to a house in Humboldt, and later downsized to a condo. In the spring of 2011, Lillian moved into Caleb Village. In earlier years, Lillian enjoyed quilting, bowling, and gardening. She was active in the German and Senior Choirs, and spent many hours knitting and crocheting for the Guardian Angels. She enjoyed watching curling, Blue Jay games, and Rider games, along with a good card game now and then. She was an active CWL member for 60 years.

Lillian is survived by three sons, two daughters, 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren: Leon (Corinne) Ramler of Airdrie, AB, and family, Amy, and Andrew (Christina); Aaron's wife, Donna and children Connor and Evyn; Ken Ramler of Saskatoon and family, Jordan (Leisha), Geoff, and Shelbi (Mike) Touhey and son Leo; Don (Joan) Ramler of Regina and family, Jay and Carter; Gwen (Lionel) Doepker of Annaheim and family, Evan (Shawna) and children Brooklyn and Joshua, Grant (Christina) and daughter Bree, and Brad (Bobbyjo) and sons Daryl and Ryder; and Cindy Ramler of Wynyard. She is also survived by four brothers: Roman, Bernard, Richard (Val), and Walter (Marcella); sister-in-law Mary Ramler; and many nieces and nephews. Lillian was predeceased by her husband Alvin (2006); son Kelly (2014); grandson Aaron (2015); one brother; four sisters; and several nieces, nephews, and in-laws.

Your mother is always with you She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street
She's the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself.
She's the cool hand on your brow
when you're not feeling well
She's your breath in the air on a cold winter's day.
She is the sound of rain that lulls you to sleep,
the colors of a rainbow,
She is Christmas morning
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
She's the place you come from, your first home, and she's the map you follow with every step you take.
She's your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate you, not time, not space.....not even death.
