Celine was born on Saturday, July 7, 1923, to Peter and Louise (nee Butala) Wolsfeld at Humboldt. She grew up in Lake Lenore, SK, and attended Lake Lenore School. Following her education, Celine stayed home to take care of her parents. Eventually, she took a hair dressing course, purchased a building in Lake Lenore, and started her own hair dressing shop. Celine also continued to be a caretaker for her parents. After her mother's death, she moved to Humboldt and worked for Fr. Francis Lohmer, OSB. Celine continued with that occupation until Fr. Francis' death 40 years later, on January 28, 2003. As well as Lake Lenore and Humboldt, Celine resided in several other communities, including Watson, Cudworth, Annaheim, and Muenster. She moved to Trinity Manor in Saskatoon in October 2015. To know her was to love her, and many people in those communities were blessed by her humility, kindness, inspiration and true friendship. Celine was also known for her dedicated volunteer work in the areas where she lived. Still active and enthusiastic at the age of 87, in 2010, she was also among a group of people who went to the Village of Ussongo, Tanzania, in Africa to help in the hospital and school. Over the years, her favorite leisure activities were reading, crocheting and traveling. Of utmost importance to Celine was her faith and devotion to the Roman Catholic Church. She was a member of the Oblate of St. Benedict, and a C.W.L. member in Lake Lenore, Cudworth, Annaheim, and Humboldt. The words from Matthew 25:21, "Well done, good and faithful servant", could easily apply to Celine.

Celine will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by one sister: Dolores LeJan of Saskatoon, SK; two sisters-in-law: Rose Wolsfeld of Humboldt, SK, and Albina Wolsfeld of Saskatoon, SK; and by numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and their families. She was predeceased by her parents, Peter and Louise (nee Butala) Wolsfeld; three brothers and three sisters: Mathias Wolsfeld (in infancy), Alfred Wolsfeld, Louis Wolsfeld, Marie (George) Martin, Dolores Wolsfeld (in childhood), and Dorothy Wolsfeld; and by brother-in-law, Lucien LeJan.

Miraculous Invocation to St. Therese

O Glorious St. Therese, whom Almighty God has raised up to aid and inspire the human family,
I implore your Miraculous Intercession.

You are so powerful in obtaining every need of body and spirit from the Heart of God.

Holy Mother Church proclaims you

"Prodigy of Miracles ... the Greatest Saint of Modern Times."

Now I fervently beseech you to answer my petition (mention here)

and to carry out your promises of spending Heaven doing good upon earth ...

of letting fall from Heaven a Shower of Roses.

Little Flower, give me your childlike faith,

to see the Face of God in the people and experiences of my life,
and to love God with full confidence.

St. Therese, my Carmelite Sister,

I will fulfill your plea "to be made known everywhere"
and I will continue to lead others to Jesus through you.

Amen.

*"I will let fall from Heaven ...
a Shower of Roses"*

- St. Therese

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance at the funeral service.
