Marvin was the fourth eldest child born to Henry and Veronica (nee Gerwing) Schedlosky on August 4, 1957. He was just about eight months old when his parents moved into Humboldt from the farm in the Bay Trail District. He received his education from St. Augustine School and later in life he obtained his GED. He was taught the values of hard work by his parents, choosing several paths in his career choices. He spent 25 years employed at the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, specializing in construction. In 1976 while at his first job at Hertz Bus, he met the love of his life and soul mate, his wife, Leona Lengyel, the youngest daughter of William and Vivian (Kaun) Lengyel of Middle Lake. On Nov. 5, 1977 they were married and began their life together. From this union, five children were born: Jennifer, Catherine, William, Lorraine and Jeffrey. Marvin enjoyed a good game of crib or "31", often challenging mom to a good game of crib until he won the rubber! Fishing and tinkering were also among Marvin's things to do. Music and sing-a-longs were often a part of family gatherings at Mom and Dad's. Marvin never passed up a chance to be there. With Val and Duane on the guitars, Mom on the button accordion, and Dad on the harmonica, many good times were had. There was lots of singing, dancing, and laughter. Marvin cherished these memories, even until his final moments. At Easter, the family gathered at Marvin and Leona's with often 50 people in attendance. When Mom turned 75, we planned a surprise party for her that summer. Marvin generously offered his home as celebration headquarters. He worked feverously to clean out his garage and spruce up his yard. Little did he know that the celebration was also for his 50th birthday! It was fun to pull the wool over his eyes too! The Saskatchewan Roughriders and the Humboldt Broncos were his favourite teams, either watching them on tv, or listening to the game on the radio. Marvin had a special pride for each one of his children and grandchildren. He looked forward to them coming home to visit. Each one of them will hold special to themselves treasured memories, or learn of how much he cherished them through the many stories to be shared about him.

Marvin is lovingly remembered by his wife of 38 years, Leona (nee Lengyel) Schedlosky; their five children: Jen (Cory) Bautz and their daughters: Carlee and Jordis; Cathy (Levi) Kohle and their children, Emmerson and Lucas; BJ Schedlosky; Lori (Phillip) Crook and their children, Alyssa, Preston and Carson; Jeffrey (Tessa) Schedlosky and their children Meah and Mavrik. Also left to cherish his memory are his mother, Veronica (nee Gerwing) Schedlosky; his brothers and sisters: Brenda (Joseph) Lovas, Denis (Joanne) Schedlosky, Henry (Maureen) Schedlosky, Duane (Charity) Schedlosky, MaryAnn (Jerry) Marksteiner, Val (Sean) Francais, and Joe (Roberta) Schedlosky; sister-in-law Judy Schedlosky; brother-in-law Don Moore; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Marvin now joins his father Henry Schedlosky Sr.; his brother Larry; nieces Loralee and Kelley Schedlosky; grandparents Joseph and Mary (nee Ratch) Schedlosky; Joseph and Anna (nee Gessner) Gerwing; and by his parents-in-law Bill and Vivian (Kaun) Lengyel; sister-in-law Valerie Moore; and niece and nephew Donna and Scott Moore.

FOOTPRINTS

One night, a man had a dream.

*He was walking along the beach with the Lord,
and across the sky flashed scenes from his life.*

In each scene, he noticed

two sets of footprints in the sand;

one made by him, and the other by the Lord.

*When the last scene of his life flashed before him,
he looked back at the footprints in the sand.*

*He noticed that many times along the path of his life,
there was only one set of footprints.*

*He also noticed that it happened
at the worst times in his life.*

*This bothered him very much,
so he asked the Lord about it.*

*"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you'd walk with me all the way.*

*But I've noticed that during times of trouble,
there is only one set of footprints.*

*I don't understand why you left me
when I needed you the most."*

*The Lord answered: "My precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.*

*During your times of trial,
when you see only one set of footprints,
that's when I was carrying you."*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude
for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance at the funeral service.
