Norbert was born on Monday, December 18, 1939 to August and Anna (nee Meyer) Schultz at Humboldt, Saskatchewan. He grew up on the family farm near Annaheim, SK, and attended school in the area. Norbert began his career as a drywaller and his speciality was his swirl ceilings. He was well known for his excellent work and the pride he took in performing it. Norbert stayed living on the family farm where he helped his late brother Sylvester with some farming and yard work. When Syl became sick Norbert became his full-time caregiver, driving him to Saskatoon three times per week, and making sure he got to all of his appointments. Norbert enjoyed family get-togethers, going for coffee regularly at his family's homes, and also at Trans Restaurant in Humboldt. He also enjoyed fishing and driving around the country side. He was well known for offering his free advice and "counselling" to his nieces and nephews. In addition, Norbert was a good story teller, but he was always adding a little extra to his stories to spice them up. He will be missed very much by his family and all his friends.

Norbert will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his three brothers and two sisters: Daniel Schultz of Hudson Bay, SK, and his family Glen, Patricia, Julia, Brent, and Lee; Donald (Mildred) Schultz of Humboldt, SK, and their family Grant and Victoria; Dale (Linda) Schultz of Humboldt, SK, and their family Dennette and Tracy; Dorothy Ann (Gerald) Olson of Plenty, SK, and their family Ole, Sylvia, Arlen and Harley; and Annabelle (Lloyd) Frank of Annaheim, SK, and their family Corinne, Bruce, Kim, Owen, and Tammy; brother-in-law Ted Vossler of Surrey, BC, and his son Gregory; and sister-in-law Caroline Rohel of West Lake, BC; the family of the late Bernard Schultz: Howard, Ronald, Debra, Marvin, Reginald, Linda, Wesley and Leah; the family of the late Edward Schultz: Shirley-Ann, and Genevieve; the family of the late Augusta McDonald: Sheila, Martin, and Kerry; the family of the late Maurice Schultz: Cyril, and Maureen; and by numerous great-nieces, great-nephews, and friends. He was predeceased by his parents, August and Anna (nee Meyer) Schultz; three sisters: Bernice Vossler, Augusta (Ian) McDonald and Jean (George) Milbery; six brothers: Roderick, Sylvester, Edward, Martin, Maurice (Lena) Schultz and Bernard (Marion) Schultz; and by two nieces and two nephews.

Feel no guilt in laughter;
he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile
that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever;
he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times
and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together,
all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you,
a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly
as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments,
you will never be apart
And he will live forever
locked safely within your heart.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude
for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
