Bev, the middle child in a family of five, was born on Wednesday, December 12, 1951, to Bill and Alice (nee Fohse) Taphorn at LeRoy. She was raised on the family farm northwest of LeRoy, and it was there she learned the importance of hard work, respect, love of life and how to have fun. Bev took grades 1 and 2 at Newnham School and after it closed, continued her formal education at LeRoy School. After graduating from Grade 12, she worked for a brief time in Humboldt, then moved to Saskatoon where she was employed at Federated Co-op. In 1974, Bev moved to Winnipeg, where she continued to reside until her passing. She worked for various companies there, and was employed at Fort Gary Industries for a number of years. Always a dedicated worker, Bev made many lasting friends during those years. Her positive attitude, out-going personality, thoughtfulness, and genuine caring and compassion endeared her to all. The house she bought on Ashburn Street became a sanctuary, not only to family and friends, but to mere acquaintances who knew they could go there for a shoulder to lean on. Many times Bev would help someone who took advantage of her kindness, but that did not deter her from assisting the next person who asked for help. Bev had a great love of life - which she especially showed these past few years. She had been struggling with cancer for over 16 years. As overwhelming as that was, she still put others first and did not give up. Faith in her God and in her church were an important part of Bev's life. That faith and determination kept her going and was a source of inspiration as she spent many hours sharing her cancer journey with others, giving them hope for their own recovery. In 2013, Bev was awarded the Manitoba Cancer Volunteer of the Year, an award that she was humbly proud of. Of utmost important to her was her family, whom she cherished deeply, and had a special place in her heart for each and every one.

Bev will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her son, Chris (Tanya) Taphorn of Winnipeg, MB, and their daughters Shanti and Alyssa; one sister, Lorraine (Stewart) Hawke of Calgary, AB; two brothers: Glenn (Suzanne) Taphorn of St. Gregor, SK, and Eldon (Trudy) Taphorn of Busby, AB; sister-in-law, Linda Taphorn of LeRoy, SK; special friend Doug Gillingham of Winnipeg, MB; and by numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She was predeceased by her father, William "Bill" Taphorn (January 1982); mother Alice (nee Fohse) Taphorn (October 2002); and by one brother, Lloyd Taphorn (October 2014).

In Loving Memory Of

All is well. What a powerful statement! When I affirm "All is well", I am affirming that my life and the lives of those I love are in God's care, filled with divine blessings. My trust is in God. By stating "All is well", I open myself to a flow of divine energy and everlasting love that blesses me in unimaginable ways. Just as a faucet opens to a free flow of water when it is turned on, I am open to a free flow of peace, prosperity, love and joy when I turn my heart to God. No need is too great for the power of God within me to resolve. As I affirm "All is well", I am assured that I am forever in God's care, experiencing unlimited good.
