Delphine was born on Thursday, February 21, 1929, to Henry and Elizabeth (nee Weber) Lauer at Humboldt, and raised on the Lauer family farm at Marysburg, SK. Delphine married Fred Kuznitsoff of Daphne, SK, and to that union two sons, Lorne and Lyle, were born. Eventually, the family moved to McBride, BC, and lived there for a number of years. Later, they returned to Saskatchewan and resided in Spalding before relocating to Watson. Fred passed away in 1967. Delphine continued to live in Watson, where she worked as a clerk at the Co-op and later at Robinson's Store, where she also became the manager. Favorite leisure activities included curling and playing ball. In 1973, Delphine married Clarence Vossen of Watson and following their marriage, they lived on his farm north of town. Delphine actively participated in all aspects of farm life, assisting Clarence with anything that needed to be done. As well, she was an excellent homemaker who loved cooking and baking, and was noted for her delicious homemade buns, soups, various canned products and, especially, her pies which were shared with her neighbours. Clarence and her great-grandsons particularly enjoyed her wonderful raspberry jam. Gardening was also a passion, and Delphine always had a large, bountiful garden, and generously shared the produce she harvested with her friends and neighbours. As well, many beautiful flowers adorned her gardens and yard. In her leisure time, Delphine thoroughly enjoyed playing cards and socializing with family and friends. She was a very congenial hostess and always had the coffee pot on. As a long-standing member of the C.W.L., Delphine also enjoyed taking part in their various activities. Delphine and Clarence retired to Humboldt in 2001. They enjoyed meeting and visiting with their new neighbours and friends and soon became a part of the regular coffee gatherings each morning at the local A & W. More than anything, Delphine derived great joy from spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandsons. She rarely missed their numerous school activities and sporting events.

Delphine will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her husband, Clarence Vossen of Humboldt, SK; son, Lyle Kuznitsoff of Victoria, BC; daughter-in-law, Kathy Franko of Watson, SK; two grandchildren and two great-grandsons: Darren Kuznitsoff of Regina, SK; and Christie (Robb) Plamondon and their children Caleb Plamondon and Kyle Plamondon, all of Watson, SK; two sisters: Irene Mager and Verla Hinz, both of Humboldt, SK; sisters-in-law: Marie Lauer and Josephine Lauer, both of Kelowna, BC; and by numerous other in-laws, nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her first husband, Fred J. Kuznitsoff; son, Lorne Kuznitsoff; parents, Henry and Elizabeth (nee Weber) Lauer; three sisters: Geramia Saretsky, Lorraine Lauer (in infancy), and Delores Wagner; five brothers: Erby Lauer, Wilfred Lauer, Nick Lauer, Roland Lauer, and David Lauer; her special "son-in-law" Greg Franko; as well as numerous in-laws.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth, and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful

He always takes the best,
He knew you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "peace be thine"

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day God called you home
