Viola was born on September 15, 1929, to John and Hildegard (Kramer) Meyer at Annaheim, SK. She grew up and attended school in Annaheim. After school she worked at the Aschenbrenner Store. On October 17, 1950 she married Ben Wourms at St. Ann's Church in Annaheim. They made their home in Annaheim where their three children were born and raised. Viola was a homemaker and also contributed to both farming life and the construction business her and Ben had. Then some years later things came full circle and she was once again working the same Aschenbrenner Store which they had purchased and ran for many years. When she was not busy working at the store she spent many hours working in her yard and garden, which she took great pride in and kept well maintained. She also enjoyed reading and cleaning. Her house was spotless which she often took ribbings about from her family. Countless hours were also spent helping putting the finishing touches on Ben & Brad's furniture that they made in their family shop. Family was the most important part of her life. She followed along with all her kids, grandkids and great grandkids activities. Although she didn't enjoy watching sports she did enjoy hearing about how her grandkids and great-grandkids did and always had a loonie or toonie to give out for goals scored. Since she always had to keep things fair, all the grandchildren usually got paid for each other's goals. Sunday Family Suppers were a tradition that she carried on for many years. She enjoyed cooking supper every Sunday for any family that could make it, which amazingly was usually everyone. Over the past few years Viola battled Alzheimer's and on January 23, 2015 she moved into St. Mary's Villa in Humboldt, SK, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Viola will be lovingly remembered by her three children, four grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren: MAXINE (Art) Vanderlinde of Annaheim, SK and family, Shawna (Evan) Doepker of Annaheim and their children Brooklyn and Joshua of Annaheim, SK, and Rylan (Leslie) Vanderlinde of Humboldt, SK; LYNN Wourms (Pat Wittig) of Humboldt and family, Blair (Jen) Wourms of Humboldt, SK and Mitchell (Michelle) Wourms of Saskatoon, SK; and BRAD Wourms of Annaheim, SK; three sisters: Leona (Maurice) Roenspies of Lethbridge, Marg Doepker and Adeleine Meyer both of Humboldt; two brothers: Dave (Florence) Meyer of Calgary and Randy Meyer of Kindersley; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Ben Wourms; parents John and Hilda Meyer; daughter-in-law, Marianne Wourms; three brothers: Melvin, Richard and Murray Meyer; one sister Millie Raskob; two brothers-in-law: Jerry Raskob and Harold Doepker.

Alzheimer's may have taken Grandma's Memories
But here are a few that we will hold on to for her:

Our weekly Sunday Family Suppers

Feasting on kuchen, crisps & buttermarts

Her quick wit and sense of humour

Her love of dogs & cats

She always had treats for them with gravy
because "bread is just too dry"

Her creativity in naming her cats,

Mama Greygus, Bleakus, Stumpy & Sputz

Never letting you leave the house without money and food

Always telling you that she will pray for you

Her love of gardening, reading, cooking & cleaning

Her stove shone like it was brand new and we often joked that when you opened her fridge you needed sunglasses.

Always having to keep things fair

How the Great Grand Kids called her Grandma GG

During stressful harvest moments or troubles in the shed
she would always suggest "I'll go put on a cup of coffee"

knowing this would solve all problems.

In the last year her love for her "squeaky pig" & peanut buttercups

A few things that will always remind us of Grandma
when we see them are:

Peonies, Geese, Big Turk Bars, Squeaky Pigs & Lady Bugs.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
