

Phillipians 3: 7-11

⁷But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

⁸ Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—¹⁰ that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,

¹¹ that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our dear husband, father, grandpa and friend Michael Philip Bieber on Monday, March 13, 2017 at the age of 93 years. He was the third of three sons and the eighth of nine children. He is predeceased by his parents, Philip and Katarina Bieber, and siblings Kate (Rediger), Florence (Rediger), Phyllis, Tony, Magdalena, Jack and Lizzie (Hill) and is survived by his sister Theresa (Harvey). He will be forever fondly remembered by his faithful and loving wife of 68 years, Doris (nee Harvey) Bieber and by three sons: Don (Marj) Bieber, Dale Bieber and Larry (Carol) Bieber; also by seven grandchildren: Laurel, Crystal, Layne, Janelle, Josh, Jennifer and Michael; and by twin great-granddaughters: Annika and Olivia. Dad's joyful and caring life touched many people in church, in schools, amongst the farming community and wherever he lived. He rests now in the arms of Jesus.
