

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Nina was born to Jules and Antoinette (nee Harel) Paquin on June 19, 1937, in La Broquerie, MB. She married Adrien Brouillette in 1955, and afterward was blessed with three sons. Nina enjoyed knitting, playing bingo, bowling, volunteering, her membership with the CWL, and spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a great mother, amazing grandmother, incredible great-grandmother, and a friend who will be sorely missed. Nina is survived by her three children and their families: EMERY (Diane) Brouillette of BC, Jennifer Gazandlare, daughter Desiree and son Adrian, Erica Thompson and son André, and Samantha Brouillette; RAYMOND Brouillette of Watson SK, Dawn Binsfeld and sons Ryder and Maddox, Emery (Jill) Brouillette and step-sons Rhett and Ryker, Daniel (Laura) Brouillette daughters Parker and Alexis and son Flynn, Jenni Brouillette and her son Jayce; HECTOR Brouillette of Sidney, BC, and daughter Maddison Brouillette; her brothers and sisters: Ronald, Hector (Shirley), Annette, Cecile, and Alice (Dave); brother-in-law, Eugene; sister-in-law, Doris; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Adrien Brouillette; parents Jules and Annette Paquin; brothers: Joseph, Ted, Peter, and Phil; sisters: Jeannette, Bernice, Bertha, and Diane; daughter-in-law, Lorraine; and her granddaughter Nina.
