

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Yvonne was born on May 6, 1934, to Greg and Anna (nee Rath) Downey in LeRoy, SK. She started off life on the farm in the LeRoy area. Yvonne attained her elementary education in LeRoy, and then attended Humboldt Collegiate Institute for her secondary education. On November 7, 1953, she married Henry Bryck. Their union was blessed with two sons. Yvonne worked in banking for a few years before accepting a telephone operator position with SaskTel on June 10, 1957, in Humboldt. In late August 1972, the Humboldt SaskTel office closed down, as direct distant dialing came into effect. Yvonne separated from Henry, and she and her two sons moved to Saskatoon where she began a new life and job with SaskTel on October 1, 1972. Yvonne worked her way up the ranks, determined, steady, and well done. On May 1, 1987, she married Raymond Dellezay. Yvonne retired on June 9, 1992. As much as she liked her 35 years with SaskTel, she truly enjoyed her retirement at the age of 58. Well done again. In September of 1996, Yvonne separated from Ray and began yet another chapter in her life. She spent many good times with her friends, the Skulski sisters from Humboldt, touring the province berry picking, enjoying the wildlife, scenery, peace and beauty of the great outdoors. Yvonne also put in many hours volunteering with the SaskTel Pioneers Heart Pillows Program for those undergoing surgery. She was a giver, always putting others ahead of herself and was truly a wonderful, loving person. You can ask anyone who knew her. Yvonne possessed a beautiful smile and a lovely laugh that drew you to join in on the enjoyment. In 2009, she was diagnosed with the onset of Alzheimer's; however, she continued living her life to the fullest while exercising her body, mind and spirit. She was a beautiful woman. Yvonne is, and will be truly missed.

Yvonne is survived by her two children and three grandchildren: Merl Bryck and daughter Maddison; and Murray (Lauressa) Bryck and their children, daughter Zinovia and son Zander; and by sister-in-law, Elizabeth Downey. She was predeceased by her father, Greg Downey (January 27, 1991); mother, Anna (nee Rath) Downey (August 17, 2004); sister, Edna Downey (November 23, 2002); brother, Eugene Downey (December 29, 2013); nephews: Greg Wittig and Barry Downey; niece, Tanice Pearson; brother-in-law, Ted Wittig; and by her ex-husbands: Henry Bryck (1977), and Raymond Dellezay (2011).
