

God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful -
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain;
He knew you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And hills were hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered,
"Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For a part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

Jane was born to Joseph and Agnes (nee Moir) Pearson on October 28, 1922, in Jansen, SK. She was the youngest of a family of three boys and three girls who lived on a farm close to Dafoe. Jane attended Alton School until Grade Eight and then Dafoe School. She worked in the Dafoe Co-op Store and on the family farm before moving to LeRoy to clerk at the LeRoy Co-op Store. Jane met Kelly Dietrick and they married on October 19, 1948. They made their home and raised four children on the family farm west of LeRoy. Jane and Kelly retired to the town of LeRoy. The farm held a very special place in her heart. Jane's personality welcomed all conversations with her special way of listening and learning about you. She drew you in with her words of encouragement, her smile and her kind, gentle way. Jane was always ready to tackle the difficult things in life for her family and more often, to celebrate the many life "successes" for her family. Life is Family and Family is Life.
