

*God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place,
He then looked down upon this Earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you and
Lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

Jack was born to Fredrick Sr. and Rosella (nee Evers) Earis on July 9, 1943, in Humboldt. He grew up on the family farm near Bay Trail, Saskatchewan and attended Deer Lake School. Following his education, Jack started working for the Department of Highways; a career which would span a period of 35 years. On February 13, 1965, he married the love of his life, Bernadette Zerff, at St. Augustine R.C. Church in Humboldt. Jack and Bernie began their life together in Lanigan. Their union was blessed with two children, a son and a daughter. In 1995, he and Bernie moved to Humboldt.

After retiring from the Department of Highways, Jack worked at the Humboldt Golf Club for nine years.

As an avid sports enthusiast, you could find Jack either volunteering as a coach for the Lanigan Pirates, playing a round of golf, at the Bronco's games either volunteering or seated in Section N, row 8, seat 8, on the lake finding fish to eat for supper or sitting watching the Saskatchewan Roughriders, Toronto Maple Leafs, Toronto Blue Jays or the Masters tournament. He and Bernie also enjoyed travelling, and for 12 years spent winters in Yuma, Arizona. Due to failing health, on July 15, 2015, Jack became a resident of St. Mary's Villa until his passing.

Jack will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife of nearly 53 years, Bernie (nee Zerff) Earis; their two children and eight grandchildren: Trent (Bev) Earis and family, Evan (Ashley) Earis, Dylan Earis, and Carson Earis; and Sherry (Jeff) Kloth and family, Robert (Kristen) Nelson, Kari (Scott) Kemp, Brent Nelson, Crissy (Matthew) King, and Lee Kloth (Shekinah LaRose); four great-grandchildren: Teolin Nelson, Nicolas King, Payton King, and Keyanna Kloth; two brothers: Fred (Cherrill) Earis, and Robert (Carol) Earis; mother-in-law, Evelyn (nee Freistadt) Zerff; sisters-in-law: Karen (James) Fleischhacker, and Aldean (Ken) Brooks; and by numerous cousins and friends. He was predeceased by his parents, Fredrick Sr. and Rosella (nee Evers) Earis; and brother, Norman Earis.
