

IF I KNEW

If I knew it would be the last time that I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep. If I knew it would be the last time that I see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for one more. If I knew it would be the last time I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise, I would video tape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day. If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute to stop and say "I love you," instead of assuming you would KNOW I do. If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day, well I'm sure you'll have so many more, so I can let just this one slip away. For surely there's always tomorrow to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything just right. There will always be another day to say "I love you," and certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do?" But just in case I might be wrong and today is all I get, I'd like to say how much I love you, and I hope we never forget. Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike, and today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight. So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today? For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day that you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss, and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish. So hold your loved ones close today, and whisper in their ear. Tell them how much you love them and that you'll always hold them dear. Take time to say, "I'm sorry," "Please forgive me," "Thank you," or "It's okay." And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have no regrets about today.

Danen is survived by his girlfriend, Chantel Bauer; his parents, Doug and Bev Ehalt of Humboldt; and his younger brother, Chad Ehalt of Lanigan. He is also survived by maternal grandmother, Jeanne (nee Thompson) Rucks; uncles and aunts: Randy Ehalt of Calgary, AB; Gordon (Donna) Ehalt of Pierceland, SK; Kathy Loessl (Johnny Hofmann), and Marilyn Pratchler, all of Humboldt; Ron (Carole) Rucks of Prince Albert, SK; Kathy(Clay) Brander of Saskatoon, SK; Tim (Kim) Rucks of Warman, SK; and Ellen (Morley) Strong of Drake, SK; numerous cousins; and by members of the Bauer family. As well, he will be missed by many co-workers and friends, as his love of life made everyone he met, love him. He leaves a huge hole in our hearts! Danen was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Willard and Ruth (nee Schiltz) Ehalt; and his maternal grandfather, Alfred Rucks.

Danen was born to Doug and Bev (nee Rucks) Ehalt on October 13, 1990, at Royal University Hospital in Saskatoon, SK. He grew up in Lanigan where he attended both Elementary and Highschool, graduating in 2008. Danen was a very active boy who was always on the move, and usually into something. He never walked! Everything was full speed ahead! He was always happy and lit up every room he entered, a gift he never lost! Danen enjoyed playing with friends, loved to draw, read, and play video games. He ran cross-country and track events. In his later life he took up MMA, mixed martial arts, which he really enjoyed. As well, he was an avid Rider's fan and attended several games. Other passions were fishing, hunting, and the outdoors. Danen's quick wit and sense of humour made him fun to be around, and his love for pranks, a little dangerous! His family and friends were victims of his many pranks, which we will miss immensely! Danen joined the Lanigan Air Cadets in 2002, and loved every minute of it! He won several awards in Cadets, including most improved shot, which he was very proud of. He learned many skills and made many friends. He worked a summer in Cold Lake AB, as a camp attendant instructing kids. In 2011, he started working at Doepker Industries in Annaheim. During his employment there, he learned many different areas of manufacturing and was able to go wherever he was needed. He was an eager learner, always wanting to advance himself. In 2012, Danen met Chantel Bauer and they were rarely apart since. They moved to Watson in 2015 and recently bought a house there and were just starting to renovate it.
