

In Loving Memory Of

*For this one farmer the worries are over,
Lie down and rest your head.
Your time has come; your work is done,
Put the tractor in the shed.*

*Some years not easy, struggles to endure,
But your faith in God transcended,
Put away your tools and sleep in peace,
The fences have all been mended.*

*You raised a fine family, worked the land well
Farming with your son,
Hang up your shovel inside of the barn,
Your work here on earth is done.*

*With faith and family through your journey,
Fond memories made along the way,
The sun is setting, the cattle are all bedded,
And here now is the end of your day.*

*Your love of God's soil has passed on to your kin,
The stories flow from the vine.
Wash off your work boots in the puddle
Left by blessed rain one final time.*

*You always believed that the good Lord would provide
And He always had somehow
Take off your gloves and put them down
No more sweat and worry for you now.*

*Your labor is done, your home now is Heaven
No more must you wait
Your legacy lives on, your love of the land
And we will close the gate.*

Max was born August 10, 1922 in Wielteng, Germany to Theresa (nee Schmaderer). He lived with his grandparents and attended school until age 15. In 1938 his parents, Leonard and Theresa, returned to Germany to bring Max to Canada where he worked with his father on the family farm. Max married Ella Heidecker in 1948 and took over the mixed farming. Their son, Ken, was born in 1949. After Ella's death in 1976, Max married Inez (Unverricht) and became step-dad to Brian, Sharon, Wendy and Ed. Max's life was well lived, full of love and laughter with family, friends and sometimes complete strangers. He was confirmed at Faith Lutheran Church and was an active member, serving on many committees. He served on the board of Bethany Pioneer Village and was Chairman during the time that Aspen Manor was built. From 1977-89 he was a director with the Middle Lake Credit Union. Max was an active community supporter and was a life-time member of Middle Lake's Lions Club. In 1982, Max and Inez moved into town and began travelling, with trips to Germany, Hawaii, California, Mexico and Alaska. Max had a special connection with his 9 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, right up to the time of his passing. Until recent months his 94 years were blessed with good health. Early Sunday morning, January 15, 2017, Max's prayer was answered and he passed away peacefully in his sleep at the Humboldt District Hospital.

Max will be lovingly remembered by his wife Inez, his son Ken (Sharon), grandchildren Nolan (Karrie), Talia (Ian); stepchildren: Brian, granddaughter Stephanie (Kirk); Sharon (Joe); Wendy (Dennis) grandchildren Ryan (Roslyn), Becky (Giovanni), Jennifer (Rich); and Ed (Lori) grandchildren Christina (Graham), Jaclyn (Erik), Cathryn; and his great-grandchildren Taylor, Ashton, Bryce, Ewan, Dylan, Joe, Maddy, Ryder, Marley and Ayla. Max is also survived by his sister Doreen (Bob). He will be remembered by numerous nieces and nephews and many good friends.
