

Last Harvest

The land is hushed,
The work is done,
The meadow turns to gold.
A weathered wheel,
A wooden rake,
A farmer's tale unfolds.
There was a time
When rake and wheel
Served well this fertile land.
When leather rein,
And wooden yoke,
Responded to his hand.
But like the fields,
He took his rest
From years of toil and tare.
A wheel and rake
His epitaph:
A farmer once lived here.

Bert grew up in the Burr – Muenster area and attended Banner School, taught by his Aunt Agnes Kienlen. He started farming at a very early age, and that was Bert's life-long career, he was proud of his cattle herd and was also involved in some construction work during that time. Besides farming, over the years he worked as a Cat operator at the Lanigan and Colonsay Potash mines. He retired and moved into Humboldt, SK in 2006. Bert enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening on the farm, he grew a huge vegetable garden from seed including every kind of herb and generously gave most of that produce away. He also had a flower garden and especially grew gladiolas because that was his mom's favourite flower. Bert was an avid outdoorsman. His faith was very important to him and he attended church regularly.

Albert will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed, especially by his cousins Dolores, Doreen, Elaine and Jerry who grew up in the same yard as Albert, his mother, uncle and grandparents, as well as other cousins and their families. Albert was predeceased by his mother, Evelyn Kienlen; cousin Irene Doepker; and by numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.
