

An Angel's Prayer

"Please Lord, don't let them be blue

For this walk I take with you.

Through this place so beautifully bright

With beams and beams of golden light.

Through your gardens lush and green

The most beauty I've ever seen.

There's fields and fields of blooming heather

Where all mankind can live together.

I search and search but find no tear

For in such beauty there's nothing to fear.

No wealth, no poverty, no discrimination of race

Wherever you look is a smiling face.

So please Lord would you pass this on,

To all of those who think I'm gone.

Please don't worry – I'm still there

In each and every smile they wear."

Helen was born on May 12, 1935 to Joseph and Elizabeth (nee Klippel) Takatch. On August 23, 1955, Helen married Joseph Knoblauch at St. Scholastica Roman Catholic Church in the Burr District. Their union was blessed with four children, one daughter and three sons. Helen and Joe lived in the Viscount area and in 1967 they bought a farm two-and-a-half miles east of Burr in the Banner School District. Together, they ran the farming operation until 2000 when they retired into Humboldt. Helen will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her two sons: Brian Knoblauch of Porcupine Plain, SK, and Allan Knoblauch of Endeavour, SK. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Helen was predeceased by her husband Joseph Knoblauch (2014); two children: Audrey Krawce (1988), and Rodney Knoblauch (1988); parents, Joseph and Elizabeth (nee Klippel) Takatch; and by two sisters: Margaret (Peter) Hiebert and Elizabeth (Nick) Steil.
