

In Loving Memory Of

*Grandpa, tell me 'bout the good old days
Sometimes it feels like this world's gone crazy
And Grandpa, take me back to yesterday
When the line between right and wrong
Didn't seem so hazy*

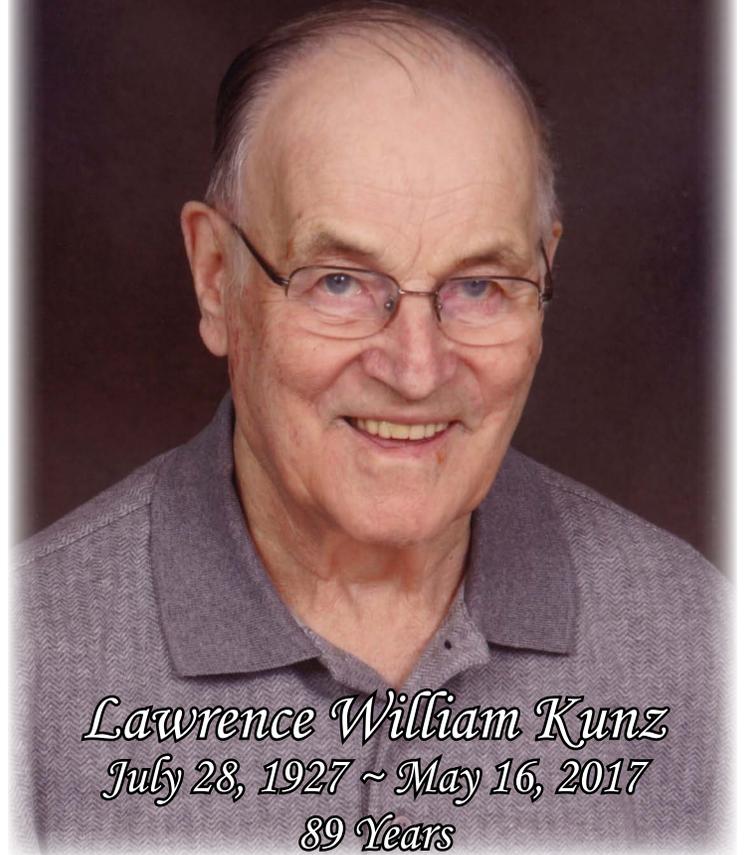

*Did people really fall in love to stay
And stand beside each other, come what may
Was a promise really something people kept
Not just something they would say and then forget
Did families really bow their heads to pray
Did people really never go away
Oh, Grandpa, tell me 'bout the good old days*

*Grandpa, everything is changing fast
We call it progress, but I just don't know
And Grandpa, let's wander back into the past
And paint me the picture of long ago*

Lawrence William Kunz was born in Humboldt on July 28, 1927 and grew up on the family farm near Annaheim. Lawrence took all of his schooling at Harvest School. After school, he went to work for Nick Kramer, a close family friend. On July 21, 1956, he married Marie Grieman and they made their home in Annaheim where they raised five children. After several years he started his own bulk farm fuel station, which he ran for more than fifteen years. After the fuel business, Lawrence worked as a labourer for the school unit and also as town foreman for the village of Annaheim. He was also the caretaker of the arena in Annaheim for many years. Throughout his life he was very involved in playing and coaching many sports teams in baseball and hockey. He was a major organizer of the Annaheim Minor Sports Day for many years. Lawrence also enjoyed a round of golf with his children and his wife, Marie. Lawrence and Marie planned and organized many family camping trips and their children and grandchildren cherish those memories. Lawrence's greatest love was Marie and his family. After Marie's passing, he moved to St. Michael's Haven in Cudworth and then Cudworth Nursing Home where he lived until his passing.

Lawrence will be lovingly remembered by his five children, ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren: Gordon Kunz of Saskatoon; Kelly (Val) Kunz of Humboldt and their children, Tinaya (Chad) Von Matt and their daughter Danica, Blair, Jade and her son Deakin; Bruce (Michelle) Kunz of Whitecourt, Alberta and their children, Brandon, Tyler, Justine, Blaine and Sydney; Ralph (Anita) Kunz of Saskatoon and their children, Sarah and her son Ethan, Melissa and Megan; Peggy (Sheldon) Becker of Cudworth and their children Shelby and Jarod; and his sister Agnes Binsfeld. Lawrence was predeceased by his wife Marie (nee Grieman) Kunz; parents, Michael and Mary (nee Raskob) Kunz; five brothers and three sisters.
