Simon was born February 22, 1921, to Albert and Bertha (nee Epp) Kunz at home on their farm in the Annaheim District. He grew up attending Harvest School. In 1942, he was sent to the army with his brother Bernard and was there for three years. After he came home he worked for Phil Hoffmann on his farm, and that is when he first noticed Pauline Crone as she would walk by the farm, to attend school in Annaheim. After dating for some time, they married in 1950, and moved to the Kunz homestead to continue farming before starting their family. Over the years they loved to travel and go to the lake. They spent several years at Greenwater Lake camping and fishing, with Simon running his own boat until the age of 91. From there they took shorter road trips closer to home. They moved to Humboldt in 1987, and Simon continued to help on the farm until the age of 85. Simon was a humble and quiet man who loved to spend time with his family, especially Christmas and birthdays. His life changed significantly after Pauline passed away.

Simon will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his two daughters, two sons, and their families: Janet (Joe) Back and family, Leahette (Dean) Zerff and children Brooke Zerff (Ryan), Brittany Morgan and Braeden Zerff, Deanna (Shawn) Wentz and children Makayla, Trinity and Austin Wentz; Rod (Elva) Kunz and family, Rodelle (Kurt) Genoway and son Westyn Genoway, and Kalen Kunz; Corinne (Doug) Wourms and family, Warren Wourms (Lisa), Jill (Scott) Golding and children Alexa, Colton and Mason Golding, Ramie (Dan) Ireland and children Ethan and Emma Carey; Carey (Shelly) Kunz and family, Brodie Kunz (Molli), and Brett Kunz; sister-in-law Marie Kunz; and numerous nieces and nephews.
