

salms 23 The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Mary was born on September 12, 1927, to Henry and Anna (nee Meyer) Brinkman at home on their farm in the Lake Lenore district. She was raised there and attended Solo School, which was located on her parents' land. On October 19, 1949, Mary married Urban Ramler in St. Anthony's R.C. Church at Lake Lenore. For the first three years following their marriage, they resided in a two-room house in the Ramler farmyard and then moved to a farm they bought half a mile south of Annaheim. Together, they farmed and raised a family of six, four sons and two daughters. In 1975, when the children were old enough, Mary enrolled in a secretarial course at Saskatoon Business College. She completed the course in the spring of 1976 and began working at the Annaheim Credit Union in May. Mary and Urban farmed until 1979. On February 19, 1999, Urban passed away. Eventually, Mary moved to Naicam where she lived for 12 years, and then to Humboldt, and was presently residing at Caleb Village. Of utmost importance to Mary throughout her life was her family and friends. A very caring person, she was active in guiding and nurturing all those around her. Mary had unconditional love for all her family, and that was also felt by anyone marrying into her family. She was always a hard-working, kind, dedicated and detailed lady. As well she was a very forward thinking person and will be missed by all whose lives were touched by her. Mary will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by five children: Jack (Cheryl) Ramler of Naicam, SK; Ross (Lois) Ramler of Lloydminster, AB; Maryanne (Lionel) Dosch of Annaheim, SK; Susanne (Kevin) Painter of Lloydminster, AB; and Roy (Tammy) Ramler of Kelvington, SK; 13 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; one sister, Lori (Des) Borstmayer of Humboldt, SK; in-laws: Veronica Brinkman of Middle Lake, SK; Irma Brinkman of Lake Lenore, SK; Bernie Sarauer of Humboldt, SK; Walter (Marcella) Sarauer of Humboldt, SK; Valerie (Richard) Sarauer of Humboldt, SK; and by numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Urban Ramler (February 19, 1999); son, Ted Ramler; two grandsons: Todd Dosch and Jeff Dosch; parents, Henry and Anna (nee Meyer) Brinkman; sisters: Irene (Jake) Stuckel, Melinda (Tony) Mamer, Bernilda (Henry) Schemenauer, and Ann (Ralph) Gaetz; brothers: Urban (Gen) Brinkman, Wilbert Brinkman, Henry Brinkman, and Teddy Brinkman; in-laws: Anton and Clara (nee Busch) Ramler, Rita Sarauer, Laura Sarauer, Mary Ramler (at birth), Virgil (Theresa) Ramler, Alvin (Lil) Ramler, and Raymond Ramler.
