

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty space.
He then looked upon the earth
And saw your tired face.*

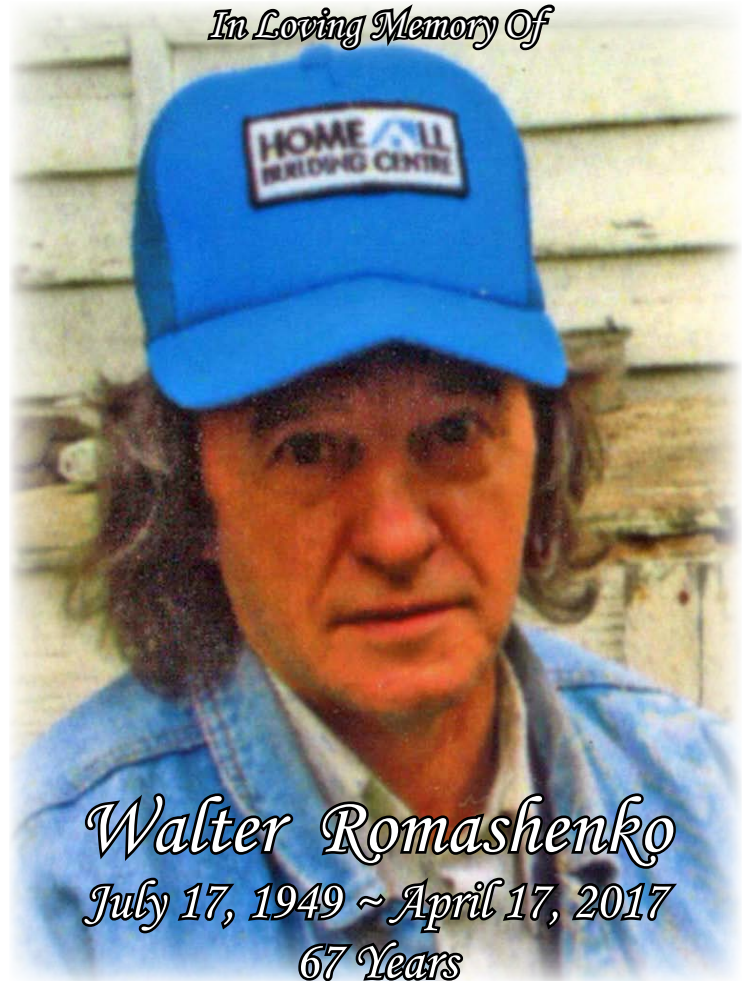

*He put His arm around you
He lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.*

Walter is survived by his daughter, Donna Romashenko of Parkridge Long Term Care Center, Saskatoon; sisters, Helen Romashenko, Verna (Julius) Nagy, Dee Earis, Sally (Laurie) Gascon; brother, Nick (Yvonne) Romashenko; in-laws Wayne Gould and Sandy Romashenko; aunt Olga Romashenko; and numerous nieces and nephews. Walter was predeceased by his parents, Michael and Rose (nee Ritzand) Romashenko; Donna's mother; brothers, Edward and Pete; sister Jean Gould; and nephews Terry Romashenko and Wayne Nagy.

Walter "Wally" John Romashenko was born in Humboldt, Saskatchewan on July 17, 1949 to Michael and Rose (nee Ritzand) Romashenko of the Burr District. Wally enjoyed hunting, bingo, going for long drives to look at the country side by the old homestead where he grew up. He took part in many of the church and town functions, always willing to help anyone out. He enjoyed playing the VLT's, riding his bike around town, going to auction and garage sales, fixing cars and lawn mowers. He also loved his dogs.
