

Mother's Rosary

Your beads we found, dear mother
In the cushion of the chair
You must have been just saying them
The last time you sat there.

The beads are old and shiny now,
The cross shines lovely too
How happy were these beads of love
With each caress from you.

Your life was like a rosary mom,
Each day lived like a prayer,
The sorrowful and the glorious
And the joyful we all shared.

So as we travel on through life
Send God's blessings down to guide us,
We'll be faithful to our rosary
As a family chain that binds us.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Lorraine was born on December 13, 1933, to Casper and Helen (nee Niebrugge) Theissing at home on their farm in the Wilmont district. She was raised there and attended Keller School. Lorraine met Herman Suer when she was playing softball with the local ladies' team, which he coached. They were married on June 23, 1953, and celebrated 57 years of married life. Lorraine worked alongside her husband on the farm until they relocated to Humboldt in 1996. Together they loved to dance, go fishing, play cards, and socialize with family and friends. Lorraine enjoyed gardening, cooking, and baking (much to the enjoyment of her friends and family). In later years, she liked going to bingo, playing cards with the ladies, and doing puzzles. Her greatest joy was visiting with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren – the busier her house was, the happier she was.

Lorraine will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her children: Janet (Gil) Beck, Colleen Kurja, David (Connie) Suer, and son-in-law Doug (Diane) Willis; nine grandchildren: Jackie (Mitchell) Pituley, David (Sally) Willis, Melissa (Ryan) Fabbro, Erin (Darrick) Ellis, Ryan (Deanna) Beck, Rachelle (Brendan) Parker, Patrick Kurja, Trevor Kurja (Jessica Reid), and Matthew Kurja; 18 great-grandchildren; brother, Wilfred (Lillian) Theissing; sisters-in-law: Rose Wyshynski, Margaret Keehorn, and Viola McKee; and by her nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Herman Suer (September 5, 2010); daughter, Karen Willis; son-in-law, John Kurja; parents, Casper and Helen (nee Niebrugge) Theissing; brother, Alvin (Doreen) Theissing; sister-in-law, Loretta (John) Manderscheid; brothers-in-law: Bernard Wyshynski, John Keehorn, and Jim McKee.
