

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared;
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all part of the Master's plan;
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

APPRECIATION

Janelle was born to Edward and Jeannette (nee Zerff) Engele on February 26, 1975. She grew up in Humboldt and attended St. Augustine and St. Dominic schools for grades 1-8, and Humboldt Collegiate Institute for grades 9-12. Janelle had a special gift working with babies and young children. She babysat for many families. Janelle worked casual at Movie Gallery and Daycare while attending high school. She made many friends while playing slow pitch. After graduating, Janelle attended Saskatoon Business College, then moved back to Humboldt. She met the love of her life and soul-mate, Mark Beckman, during one of her many social outings to Bruno. They were married in Humboldt at St. Augustine Church on May 18, 2002. Janelle and Mark were blessed with a beautiful son, Tristin Edward on October 27, 2006. Their dog Patches completed their family in 2013. Janelle ended her 21-year career at Humboldt Cooperative Daycare in 2017. She adored being a wife and mother, and especially loved watching Tristin play sports. Janelle thoroughly enjoyed the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Generously showing her love and kindness for family and friends was everything to Janelle. Despite many struggles, Janelle maintained a smile and positive attitude and was more concerned about others than herself. Janelle will forever be loved and remembered by her husband Mark, son Tristin, and pet dog Patches; her mother, Jeannette; brother, Chris (special friend Natalie) and his children Kennedy, McKenna and Mason; brother, Todd (Laura) and their children Victoria, Nicholas, Steven and Julia; brother, Scott (Annette) and their children Jessica, Rebecca, Emily, Andrew and Rachel; and by her paternal grandmother, Julia Engele. She was predeceased and welcomed into her heavenly home by her father, Edward Engele; paternal grandfather, Henry Engele; and by her maternal grandparents, Alex and Francis (nee Witt) Zerff.
