

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.
Sometimes there were two sets of footprints,
other times there was one set of footprints.
This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life,
when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.
So I said to the Lord: "You promised me Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk with me always.
But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life
there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?"
The Lord replied: "The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, is when I carried you."

Trudy Estelle (nee Lewis) Debler was born January 4, 1974 to Norman and Jean (nee Irwin) Lewis at Nipawin SK; she was the Nipawin New Year's Baby that year! A new sister for Brenda, Cindy and Donna. Trudy grew up on a farm just south of Shipman. She attended Smeaton and Choiceland schools, and graduated from L.P. Miller school in Nipawin. On November 29, 1992 she married Kevin Debler at Prince Albert, SK. The three loves of Trudy's life were her husband Kevin and their two boys Travis and Scott. They were her everything! After a few moves, Trudy and Kevin made their home at Watson, SK. Trudy held a few short term jobs; she was a wonderful wife, mother and homemaker. Trudy was a very caring and giving person. She would give anything away because really she didn't need it or want it knowing that you liked it more. Trudy was very good at decorating and crafting. She could make something out of nothing. Trudy was a very quiet, private person. Our family has suffered a huge loss. Trudy is lovingly remembered by her husband Kevin; sons: Travis and Scott; parents Norman and Jean (nee Irwin) Lewis; parents-in-law Dale and Sylvia Debler; sisters: Brenda (Malcolm) Pallos; Cindy (Gord) Pearse; Donna (Gord) Brazier; brother-in-law Todd; sister-in-law Nancy; nieces: Erin, Erica, Ashley, Michaela; and nephews: Jerri, John, Jeffrey, Kyle and Justin.
